2 TRIPOLI BEING EVACUATED

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Short-range fighters mauled Marshal Rommel's retreating columns as deep as 25 miles inside Tunisia today as the fate of Tripoli appeared sealed, with the British Eighth Army reported by Morocco radio to have already reached the city's suburbs.

The Morocco broadcast also reported parts of Tripoli were burning and that a large part of the civilian population was being evacuated.

LIBYA—Great fires raged in Tripoli today as the triumphant British Eighth Army rolled into the Mediterranean city's outskirts. Rommel arrived in Tunisia... and bitter fighting was continuing in the Pont Du-Fahs area of Tunisia.

ALLIES ERASE JAP POCKET

AUSTRALIA, Jan. 22 (AP)—One of the four pockets of resistance still held by the Japanese in the Sanananda sector of New Guinea has been liquidated, the Allied high command reported today.

One hundred and fifty Japs were slain in this operation. The pocket was the one about 700 yards in from the beach near Sanananda road.

The fighting was seriously hampered by 10 inches of rain in a single day, but the troops slogged on for the kill.

Retired Sergeant Will U. S. Fortune

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 22 (AP)—Charles A. Smith, retired Army sergeant who was found dead in a small house in which he lived alone, left a chest containing between $6000 and $8000.

With the money, officers said, was a note addressed "to whom it may concern," which directed $1000 be turned over to his sister and the remainder sent to the U. S. Treasury which paid me for years."

A British broadcast heard by CBS in New York said that the main defense works of Tripoli already had fallen and that British artillery was aligned "on a height commanding the city and harbor."

British light naval forces attacked Tripoli's harbor Tuesday night, sank an Italian submarine and then hit the harbor works, sustaining only superficial damage and two men wounded.

GIRAUD BEATS OFF THRUST Cairo said that by last evening the British, in steady pursuit of Rommel, were engaging the enemy "west of Homs and south of Tripoli," but the Italian reported British forces southwest of the city, intimating it was being bypassed as well as attacked.

On the central Tunisian land front Gen. Henri Giraud's hard-pressed French troops reported beating off intensified attacks which the Germans supported with tanks and planes in the spreading battle southwest of Pont du Fahs.

In this desperate effort to widen a corridor for Rommel's withdrawal into Tunisia, the Germans were said to have made some gains in strong attacks north of Ains Meshour, 30 miles west of Kairouan, but the French said their own troops stormed a height near Fondouk el Aoub, to the south.

The whole front was reported erupting into heavier fighting that might presage a showdown of strength.

PLANES BLAST NAZIS Allied warplanes struck with bombs and guns against armor-supported German forces threatening French positions at Ousselita, 37 miles below Pont du Fahs.

Marshall in Egypt Soon, Nazis Say

LONDON, Jan. 22 (INS)—Reuter's (British) news agency picked up a broadcast by the Nazi-controlled Paris radio reporting that United States Chief of Staff Gen. George C. Marshall will go to North Africa shortly to take over supreme command of Allied forces.

The Axis propaganda broadcast lacked confirmation in any authoritative source.

Lieut.-Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is in charge of Allied operations in North Africa.

part in the fight, the Americans said.

The encounter took place over the ocean off Wewak. After an hour of fighting 12 Zeros had been shot down and six damaged. Some of the American bombers were damaged, but no crew member was injured.

IOWAN DOWNS 4 ZEROS

The air battle, one of the most intense the war has developed in this area, started with a flank attack by the Zeros at altitudes ranging from 2000 to 8000 feet.

RAF BLOCK-BUSTERS RIP RUHR INDUSTRIES

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The RAF returning to the attack on Germany for the first time since its raids on Berlin last week-end, blasted targets in the industrial Ruhr during the night, the air ministry announced today.

Four raiders were lost in the assault, which left large fires burning in the target area. Accurate observation of the results was prevented by heavy clouds, the air ministry added.

Some of Britain's biggest bombers, capable of carrying four-ton block busters, apparently took part, for the Berlin broadcast said that at least six four-engine planes had been shot down.

Last night's raid, the 12th on Germany this month, followed a series of daylight attacks on Northern France and the Lowlands by RAF bombers escorted by swarms of fighters, including two squadrons of United States Army Air Forces.

Knight Put War Ahead of Writing

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Eric Knight believed that in this war at least the sword was mightier than the pen.

One of 35 killed in the transport plane crash in Dutch Guiana, Knight, 45, wrote his publishers, Harper and Brothers, only a few days ago:

"The big thing is to win this war by killing Germans, not by writing books. I admire conscientious objectors in this war so long as they are conscientious and I admire soldiers. The only ones I never admire are the ones who fight with their mouths: 'Kill one for me.' Each man with desire for bloodshed should do his own killing."

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The German high command asserted today Russian forces attacking from the west had broken through the lines of the German "defenders of Stalingrad"—presumably the remnants of the 22 divisions the Russians reported trapped there.

The broadcast communique, recorded here, also reported Russian attacks all along the southern sector of the eastern front, but said elsewhere these had been repulsed.

The Russians have reported that the 22 divisions before Stalingrad, originally some 220,000 men, had been whittled down to about 50,000.

For the first time the German high command in its official communique admitted the desperate plight of Axis troops encircled before Stalingrad.

"The German group in the Stalingrad area which is closely encircled by the enemy and which is offering tenacious resistance to strong enemy pressure had to wage heavy fighting yesterday against the Soviets, who are storming with far superior forces," the communique said.

"Despite heroic defense the defenders of Stalingrad (Ger-

JAPS' AIR CONTROL PLAN FAILS, YANKS DOWN 18 ZEROS

By VERN HAUGLAND

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, Jan. 20 (Delayed) (AP)—Two dozen or more Japanese fighter planes were reduced to a mere six undamaged craft after they tangled with American heavy bombers today, despite enemy use of a kind of aerial control tower technique.

A silver Zero plane hovered a thousand feet above the scene of the air battle directing the other Jap planes, American pilots reported. The silver Zero never gave up its press-box view to take many thousands of rounds of ammunition.

In Dowie's plane, Corp. Clyde Daniel of Shreveport, La., was credited with shooting down a Zero.

N. E. FLIERS IN BATTLE Dowie's nose gunners shared one plane destroyed and one damaged. They were Lieut. Matthew Saltysiak of Providence, R.I., navigator, and Sergt. Jack Coogan of Madison, N. J., bombardier.

It was the second time they had shot down a Zero by joint action. Lieut. Roy Olsen of Cedar Falls, Ia., who piloted a plane which destroyed three Zeros and damaged one, said Staff Sergt. Charles Dagata of Maynard, Mass., was one of his crewmen who scored a hit on an enemy plane.

Meanwhile a group of B-25s, the North American Billy Mitchell medium bombers, raided Jap supply dumps at Lae and set fire to oil supplies, judging from thick black smoke which appeared from target areas. Pilots on this mission included Lieut. Lynn Roberts of Danville, N. Y., James Angel of Shreveport, La., and Dick Ellis of Laurel, Del.

Lost Lynn Boy Found Safe But Shivering

Found shivering from the cold, but otherwise apparently unharmed, an 8-year-old Lynn boy who had been missing for 30 hours, was safe in his Boston st., Lynn home again today.

The lad, Ronald Lena, a third-grade pupil at the Tracy school, was found walking along Union st., in Lynn by Patrolman Horace A. Hill, just as police were set to organize a city-wide search.

His mother, Mrs. Beatrice Paquette said he had not been home since close of school Wednesday. The youngster had nothing to say about where he had been.

WINTER'S GRIP HITS WAR JOBS

SEATTLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—Most war industries in Seattle, except for the Boeing aircraft plants, returned to restricted production Thursday after weather conditions had brought virtually total paralysis for two days.

Weather also caused curtailment of war work in Portland, Ore. Two deaths in Washington and one in Oregon occurred in accidents attributed to the weather.

Power failures were the most important factor in shutting down shipyards on Harbor island near Seattle.

Most Seattle shipyards had men working in shops and protected areas, but not outside.

Seattle's larger stores continued closed for the second day. Schools were closed. President Lee Paul Sieg announced the University of Washington would reopen Monday.

Thief Finds Way To Get Fuel Oil

Theft of an oil truck valued at $2300 and loaded with 200 gallons of fuel oil destined for welfare recipients in Somerville was reported today by John Hagigeorgis, proprietor of the Marathon Oil Co.

Hagigeorgis told the police that his truck was stolen from its parking space in front of the Linwood garage on Linwood st. some time between midnight and 2 a. m. this morning.

Salvatore Cappel, proprietor of the garage, stated that his night watchman was forced to leave the truck outside because of lack of parking space in the garage. At 2 a. m. this morning the watchman went out to drive the truck in and discovered the ignition key was missing from the lock.

A few minutes later he returned to take a second look and the truck was missing.

COL. NATALIE'S CHARGES FACE FULL PROBE

Complete investigation was demanded today of charges by Miss Natalie Hays Hammond, deposed commandant, that the Massachusetts Women's Defense Corps had been "hamstrung" by petty politicians and scheming job-seekers—none of whom she named.

Her statement, claiming "power politics" forced her removal, was highlighted by her assertion that she would "welcome a full inquiry."

Reps. Enrico Cappucci and Louis Lobel, Democrats, both of Boston, already have requested a "complete report" on the behind-the-scenes bickering in the corps.

They called on Gov. Saltonstall to order Director J. Wells Farley of the state public safety committee to submit such a report to the joint Legislative committee on military affairs and public safety.

"The people of the Commonwealth have a right to know all the facts, as they affect the foundation of our civilian defense system," the representatives said. "One would infer from the innuendos in the newspapers that there is more to this controversy than meets the eye."

Regional district commanders of the Defense Corps met with Maj. John J. Lane, corps co-ordinator, at the unit's Beacon st. headquarters today to discuss a drastic "housecleaning" and possible choice of a new commander.

SAGANSKY BAIL $100,000 IN BRIBERY CASE

High bail of $50,000, double sureties—a total of $100,000—was imposed in Middlesex superior court on Dr. Harry (Doc Jasper) Sagansky, alleged $90,000,000 gambling syndicate head, after he pleaded innocent to four bribery indictments.

James J. Carrigan, Jr., Malden filling station proprietor, who pleaded innocent to the same charges in four indictments, was held in $5000, double sureties.

These bail amounts were only on the charge of conspiring to offer bribes to three Malden aldermen in what Dist. Atty. Robert F. Bradford of Middlesex County characterized as "a brazen and bold-faced attempt to buy up the city government," and control beans in Malden.

JAILED IN HANDCUFFS

On three charges of offering bribes to the aldermen, Sagansky and Carrigan were held each in $5000 additional bail, but this was on their personal recognizance, with no security to be furnished.

Already Sagansky is out on $15,000 cash bail in Boston on lottery charges, and he can obtain his release in Middlesex by providing $50,000 cash, according to Bradford.

However, he went into handcuffs—as did Carrigan—after the session, and they were led by deputy sheriffs to East Cambridge Jail, there to await posting of bonds.

The high bail was set by Judge William C. Giles, despite a plea by defense counsel, Max Ulin, that Sagansky not be "harassed," a plea in which Ulin pointed out the defendant is a married man with four children; that he lives at home and that he was arrested while entering his home.

TRIAL ON FEB. 1

However, Judge Giles read a letter from the attorney-general, produced by Prosecutor Bradford, and said he would not take the responsibility of going against the wishes of the state prosecutor, who asked in the letter for the high bail.

The letter to Bradford, it is understood, declared that $50,000 "does not even come near his income for any year."

District Attorney Bradford asked for a trial date some time in the latter part of next week or early the following week, but Atty. Ulin said he would like time in which to file special pleas and a motion for particulars.

The court gave Ulin until next Monday to file his motion for particulars and said he would hear special pleas on Tuesday.

Then Judge Giles set Monday, Feb. 1 as a tentative date for trial of the bribery cases.

That is, if experiments being conducted by the North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station in Raleigh turn out favorably and food packers adopt the preservation method now in its final research stages.

The housewife, asking for a pound of snap beans, may see the grocer dipping into a vat, ladling out the requested amount, and placing the beans in convenient size containers.

Conducted by the Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the experiments involve large scale brine preservation of snap beans, garden peas, lima beans and other vegetables.

What the scientists have in mind is the bulk handling in grocery stores of foods so preserved. The product obtained thus far has good color and flavor.

Research is being conducted by Dr. John L. Etchells of the Agricultural Research Administration and Dr. Ivan D. Jones of the department of horticulture of the N. C. Agricultural Experiment Station.

The vegetable brining program has been approached from three sides.

One involves vitamin changes during curing and storage of vegetable material.

The second has to do with the influence of the salting and desalting methods on the vegetable material prior to consumer use in order that losses of nutrients, flavor and attractiveness of the preserved material may be held to a minimum.

The third involves the bulk handling of brined foods.

3 Gypsies Held In N. Y. Charge

A Lowell mother, her husband, their eight-weeks-old baby, and another man, all said by police to be Gypsies, were in the Charles st. jail today awaiting police action on charges that the adults are fugitives from justice in New York in connection with a $2700 larceny.

Mrs. Lena Stevens, 26, went to a cell crooning a Gypsy lullaby to the infant in her arms. Her husband, Joseph, also was held along with Nido Marks, 36. The woman is held in bonds of $1000 and her husband in $2500. Bail for Marks was set at $10,000.

The trio face New York charges that they fleeced Mrs. Stella McDonald of Connolly, N. Y., a seaman's wife, of her life savings. They plan to fight extradition at a hearing set for next Thursday by Judge Joseph Zottoli.

GROVE FIRE REPORT FILED

In a 19-page document compiled as a "preliminary report" by the National Fire Protection Ass'n, cause of the Coconut Grove disaster last Nov. 28 is termed "an ordinary fire" in which panic and improper exits contributed to the large death toll.

The report quotes a physician who examined hundreds of the bodies as stating he found only one broken bone—a rib. The document says only a few of the victims received serious external burns and that cause of most deaths "appear to have been due to effects on the lungs."

"We cannot believe that this disaster is chargeable to any deficiency in the law," the report asserts. "In our opinion, building and fire officials can now do practically everything that is necessary to assure public safety without any more laws."

"The combustible decorations, cloth finish on the ceiling and other readily combustible materials could have caused a quick, hot and fast-spread fire," it said.

WITNESS WHOM FLYNN FOES COUNTED ON WON'T APPEAR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—A witness counted upon by the Republican opposition to support charges at a Bronx grand jury gave a "whitewash" to Edward J. Flynn said to be excused from testifying today as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee resumed its inquiry into Flynn's appointment as minister to Australia.

Chairman Connally (D.) of Texas announced receipt of the following telegram from George H. Coburn:

"My name has been mentioned connection committee hearing on confirmation Edward J. Flynn. I have no knowledge or evidence Mr. Flynn knew work on his property was being done with city material and labor. I do not wish to be a witness either for or against Senate confirmation."

Coburn, who referred to charges by Sen. Bridges (R.) of New Hampshire that a courtyard on Flynn's country home in New York had been paved with materials owned by the city of New York, was identified by Bridges as the Bronx grand juror who was "disgusted" by the handling of "the paving block scandal."

Coburn, Bridges said, would appear before the committee to tell "why Flynn was exonerated."

Connally said it would be for the committee to decide whether to call Coburn against his wishes, remarking "If the committee wants to hear him, we will subpoena him and get him here."

Dist. Atty. Samuel Foley of the Bronx, who conducted the Grand Jury investigation and who was described in Bridges' charges as the "political stooge" of Flynn, was listed as one of the five witnesses called to testify today.

The committee also had received from Daniel Daly, the Grand Jury foreman, a telegram stating that he was "Delighted to accept your committee's invitation to appear tomorrow to refute innuendoes and accusations that the yellow press have published."

This Plant Was ALL Guards

HOUSTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Maj. Charles F. Dinwiddie, provost marshal for this area, called on the owners of two small adjoining war plants and told them their contracts probably could not remain in force unless armed guards were provided.

"Look around you," he was directed by W. A. Baird, owner of the Texas Washer Co., who pulled a warning whistle.

Maj. Dinwiddie looked around—into the muzzles of sawed-off shotguns, rifles and pistols in the hands of men and women workers who had dropped their tools and grabbed weapons.

Every window and door in the two plants was covered. "Task forces" patrolled the building occupied by Baird's company and the Specialty Manufacturing Co. owned by A. R. Engler.

"Everybody out here is an armed guard," Baird explained.

On Feb. 16, the Army Ordnance Department will confer the "E" award to the two companies.

ICE SKID CAUSES CRASH

A skid on the ice was blamed today for a truck crash on Pleasant st., Malden, which broke a fire hydrant and sent a 25-foot geyser of water spurting into the air. Nearby buildings and parked cars were draped with ice by the time the water was shut off by repair crews.

Hoover Sees Food Problem Biggest in Post-War World

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (INS)—Former President Herbert Hoover today insisted that production of food, now only second in importance to manufacture of armaments, will take first place in the eyes of the post-war world.

Declaring that his views were not to be taken as a criticism of the Administration or of the war effort, the former food administrator of the last World War told a meeting of the national industrial conference board that food supplies of the nation today were comparatively less than they were during the last conflict, despite the fact that we have fewer allies to feed.

The former Chief Executive bluntly placed the blame for the current food shortage on two principal trends—drafting of a farm labor and stringent priorities on farm machinery. The former, he cautioned, cannot be overcome by employment of women alone.

Pointing out that the modern farmer, due to mechanization of farm equipment is a "mechanic as well as a farmer," Hoover declared that the only solution to the problem was a furlough for agricultural workers now in the Army, plus the wholesale, temporary employment of Mexican farm labor.

He also called upon industry to cease accepting workers coming from farming districts, to

"economize on labor in industry and to pass on the economies to the farmer."

Hoover held price ceilings on foodstuffs responsible for what he termed the unnecessarily increased slaughter of cattle, sheep and hogs, a trend which he termed dangerous in view of the fact that this country will be called upon to feed between 300,000,000 and 400,000,000 people at the war's end.

Electric Eye Sees Slump in Traffic

"Electric eye" recording devices on nine key Bay State roads disclosed that motor traffic on Massachusetts highways fell off 36.1 per cent during 1942, the Federal Planning Survey announced today.

Statistics, the survey announced, showed December, 1942, traffic was 50.6 less than in December a year ago. The survey also showed that Massachusetts' October, 1942, gasoline consumption of 45,820,000 gallons was 30 per cent less than used in the same month in 1941.

A 10-months' study of gasoline consumption, comparing January through October of 1941 and 1942, showed a 24.2 per cent drop in the latter year.

Aviation Committee Plan Stirs Protest

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—A move to streamline Congress by creating a standing House committee on aviation—a proposal embodied in the Republican program for the 78th Congress—drew the fire today of Democratic chairmen of three House committees dealing with that subject. Because of the divergence of opinions on the subject, chairman Sabath (D.) of Illinois, of the Rules Committee has called hearings starting Monday.

MOBILIZE ITALIAN WOMEN

MADRID, Jan. 22 (AP)—A Rome dispatch published by the Madrid newspaper ABC said that under a new decree all Italian women from 14 to 60 and all men from 14 to 70 are to be mobilized for labor service.

LIFTING OF LENINGRAD SIEGE MAY BRING NORSE INVASION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (INS)—Lifting of the German siege of Leningrad and Sweden's renewed fears of invasion today revived speculation in diplomatic circles in Washington concerning the possibility of an eventual Allied move to open a new front in Norway.

If the Russian offensive around Leningrad can develop sufficient strength, the possibility is seen that the Soviet armies might be able to move up through Finland and effect a juncture with an Allied invasion force coming into northern Norway.

LOGICAL PLACE

The view has long prevailed in diplomatic circles in Washington that Norway eventually would be a logical place in which to open a new front against Germany.

It is from airfields based in northern Norway that the German air force has been playing such havoc with the Allied convoys to Russia via the northern route.

The few warships of the German navy that have ventured out to sea also have been based in Norwegian fjords. If the Germans could be driven out of Norway, it is believed the supply route to Russia and Archangel could be made fairly safe.

Other advantages seen in an eventual Allied move in Norway include:

SWEDISH ORDERS

The possibility of forcing Finland out of the war; diversion of German strength to another active Allied front; hitting Hitler at a point where immediate help could be expected from the native people; possibly precipitating a revolt in Nazi-occupied Denmark, and bringing Sweden into the war on the side of the Allies.

Belief in Allied diplomatic circles that the opening of a new front in Scandinavia would soon find Sweden in the war on the United Nations' side has been strengthened by the Swedish government's recent order to its armed forces to "act on their own initiative to organize and dispose of defense forces" in case they should be cut off from the government and the high command.

Germans Mass Troops to Repel Norway Invasion

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 22 (AP)—Schools and other buildings are being requisitioned by the Germans in Norway to house troops in Oesfold, Mots, Fredrikstad and Halden, where the number of soldiers has been increasing since Christmas, reports from Norway said today.

Askim and Skjeberg also are reported crowded with soldiers. Fredrikstad and Halden are cities on the east shore of Oslofjord, below Oslo.

Between 5000 and 6000 members of the Norwegian Hirdman, a German-dominated military organization, were reported receiving training from German instructors, so they could be sent into battle in the event of an invasion.

NO DRINKS AT LUNCH?

HARRISON, N. J., Jan. 22 (INS)—Tavern owners were asked today to discourage war workers from buying drinks at lunch periods or on their way to work. The request was made by Alfred E. Driscoll, state alcoholic beverage control commissioner.

Jap Educators Bar Baseball

By the Associated Press
 Educational authorities in Aichi prefecture of Japan have abolished baseball as a means of putting an end to "hardly sportsmanlike" customs introduced from America, a Tokyo dispatch broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, reported today.
 Nagoya, a great industrial city, is in Aichi prefecture. Nagoya College and semipro teams have been among the best in Japan.
 "The educational department thereby hopes to put an end to hardly sportsmanlike customs which had come from America, as for instance preferential treatment accorded to members of such baseball teams by university authorities," the broadcast said.

PLAYS MUSIC, WAITS DEATH

SAN QUENTIN, Calif., Jan. 22 (AP)—From the death cell, close by San Quentin prison's gas chamber, music came from the phonograph of Leslie B. Gireth, who has a date with death today.
 The 30-year-old former Glendale, Calif., jeweler asked the warden for the phonograph—the one found near the body of his pretty young sweetheart, Dorena Hammer, whose death is to cost him his life.
 Warden Clinton Duffy, calling the dapper, cheerful Gireth the "most amazing man I ever have known," said the condemned man took the phonograph and 20 or 30 records into the death cell with him last night.
 Whether the records included Debussy's melancholy "Claire De Lune," the one found on the machine alongside the 21-year-old girl's bullet-pierced body, the warden could not say.

Gireth vigorously opposed any attempts to obtain clemency for him.

Although Gireth's estranged wife asked for a stay of execution to produce evidence for a commutation of the death sentence, Governor Earl Warren declined to intervene.

"No person has any authority to act in my behalf," declared the Hungarian-born prisoner, who had maintained since arrest his wish that the state speed his execution.

Gireth has never revealed the motive for firing three pistol bullets into the girl as she lay sleeping in a San Leandro auto court where they had registered as man and wife.

School Editors Taken Back

Two 17-year-old Watertown High School seniors, suspended by school officials because they edited an unauthorized publication called "The Underground," which allegedly contained scurrilous matter, will be permitted to return to classes, school authorities said today.

Suspension of the young editors were ordered by School Supt. Francis Kelly on recommendation of Principal Herbert Archibald. The single-sheet publication carried the line:

"The Underground gives you all the news not fit to print—we guarantee to cover or uncover all the news."

You Should Know . . .

THE RED CROSS WAR FUND IS A SEPARATE CAMPAIGN . . .

My dear Mr. Chairman:

I concur in the views expressed in your letter of June seventeenth with reference to further proposals to include the Red Cross in combined fund raising campaigns, and I fully agree that the Red Cross should make its war fund and membership appeals directly and separately to the people and should not participate in any joint fund raising efforts.

With the pressure of wartime work I feel the Red Cross has made a wise decision to combine the November Roll Call with its next war fund campaign in March 1943. This will not only be a distinct saving in effort and manpower but will make possible a proper spacing of the other major appeals. The nation can look forward to the month of March 1943 as Red Cross Month.

The Red Cross because of its broad interests and responsibilities is in response to its appeal of last December was one of the first evidences of complete national unity following our entrance into the war. The enlistment of the people in that national effort had a value and significance quite beyond the amounts of their contributions.

The character of the Red Cross and its responsibilities under international treaty and its congressional charter are such that the national interests will best be served if the Red Cross maintains direct contact with the people for the membership and support necessary for its work at home and abroad.

Very sincerely yours,

Norman H. Davis

Honorable Norman H. Davis,
 Chairman, American Red Cross,
 Washington, D. C.

- Last year the Red Cross was part of the Greater Boston United War Fund.
- This year the Red Cross War Fund is a separate campaign not connected with any other fund.
- To our friends of the Greater Boston War Fund, we extend our heartiest good wishes for a successful campaign.
- March 1st to March 31st has been set aside for the Red Cross War Fund Campaign.
- Because of the many vital services the Red Cross is rendering to our armed forces all over the world, your support will be needed more than ever.

QUISLING PURGES AIDES

By EDWIN SHANKE

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 22 (AP)—The ousting of prominent Quisling leaders from posts in a purge of the Nasjonal Samling party was reported today in stories from Norway

Vidkun Quisling, head of the party, is conducting a gradual purge, the reports said.

First to go was Yngvar Martens, district leader in Nordtrondelag, who was said to have been removed after his brother-in-law, Herman Haufen, accused him of black market operations. Earlier Martens was reported to have accused Haufen of financing repairs to his automobile with official German money. Reports said more dismissals were expected.

In the Skien district, a prominent Norwegian Nazi leader, Alf Seeberg, was said to have been ousted.

To make certain vacancies would be filled with politically-reliable men, Quisling directed the department of the interior to form a new political office to control all appointments.

Under Nazi pressure Quisling was said to have dismissed all members regarded as undesirable from the board of Norway's national bank.

It was also reported a cousin of Quisling, Constable Abraham Quisling, in Skien, resigned from the Nasjonal Samling—and then paid for it by being discharged from the Norwegian police.

Coast Army Balloon Blast Kills 1, Hurts 17

VALLEJO, Cal., Jan. 22 (AP)—A soldier was killed and five soldiers and 12 civilians were injured by the explosion of an Army barrage balloon at its moorings here yesterday.

A wooden barracks on one side of the vacant lot where the balloon was moored burst into flames immediately after the explosion. On the other side 10 war workers' homes, constructed hastily to meet housing demands, collapsed. Four others were damaged.

'SUICIDE FLIERS' SINK 65,000 TONS OF JAP SHIPS IN ARCTIC

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 22 (AP)—Navy fliers making missions in which every flight was described today by their wing commander as "one the crew should not have returned from," sank 65,000 tons of Japanese shipping in two weeks after the Dutch Harbor attack.

JAB JAPS NOW, CHINA DEMAND

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22 (INS)—A warning that "if the United Nations do not immediately attack Japan, it will take the entire world at least three years to defeat the Nipponese later," was sounded in Los Angeles today by Maj.-Gen. Dai-Fung King, member of China's military mission to the United States.

"And all that is needed to deal with Japan now is 500 fighting planes and 100 transport planes," the artillery officer declared.

Asserting that the United Nations are rolling up tremendous toll of future death and suffering for themselves by not attacking Japan at once, Gen. Dai-Fung said, "the longer we postpone the attack, the more difficult it will be."

"Japan will organize puppet soldiers by forcing the conquered peoples to form slave armies," he warned. "But even most important, Japan will be able to develop the raw materials she has seized—oil, rubber, tin, steel and the like."

"Either we could cripple their sea-lane communications—and we need more submarines in the Pacific to do it, or we could bomb her heart system from Alaska or the Chinese coast."

"Sports," by Jack Conway, every day in the Evening American.

"Every man knew this and yet none wavered," said Capt. Leslie E. Gehres, Coronado, Cal., commander of patrol wing four. Twenty-five officers of the wing were awarded decorations by President Roosevelt.

Gehres mentioned the tenacity and bravery of Lieut. Lucius D. Campbell, Seattle, as typical of the personnel of the wing. Campbell, flying in a snowstorm over the bleak Alaskan waters, contacted a heavy enemy fleet concentration.

"He maintained contact until his ship, riddled by bullets, was forced down at sea," the captain related. "He received the Navy Cross for his action."

KEEP POUNDING JAPS

Gehres' command maintained constant patrol over thousands of miles of cold Alaskan waters. Returning to bases knee-deep in mud only long enough to refuel and rearm, the American fliers, constantly confronting adverse weather, kept accurate tab on Jap positions and strength.

The fliers used Consolidated Catalina patrol bombers. Gehres said the Jap invasion force at Kiska was bombed for three days through sheets of anti-aircraft fire. Also included in the wings list of destruction were many Jap aircraft, a radio station and an ammunition dump.

The 65,000 tons of shipping damaged included direct hits on a large transport, a destroyer, and three cruisers in addition to many near misses.

Many members of the wing had been in Alaska only a few days before the Japs attacked. Ground and plane crews stood long watches which Gehres said were relieved only by the frigid, bleak beauty of the Aurora Borealis.

WORK TILL THEY DROP

"Men worked until they dropped from exhaustion," Gehres related. "The entire crew of one seaplane tender once labored without rest for 36 hours to service and refuel the Catalinas. Often men would wade up to their waists in the icy water to steer the big boats into ramps."

Lieut.-Comdr. Charles E. Perkins, Wendell, N. C., also was cited by the captain for heroic flying. Gehres said Perkins piloted an isolated patrol bomber which, despite difficulties, transmitted vital information on enemy strength and position. Perkins also received the Navy Cross.

"The fliers many times fought and patrolled until their fuel was gone knowing they would be forced down at sea but they were unwilling to break off contact with the enemy."

3 WOMEN HELD IN SHOPLIFTING

Facing five counts of larceny, three women today were arraigned before Judge Elijah Adlow, in Central Municipal Court, charged with the theft of more than $5000 worth of merchandise from downtown stores.

The three defendants, Mrs. Betty Rich, 45, alias Mary Alonzo, of Albion st., Wakefield, mother of four children; Mrs. Jessie A. Visco, 32, and her sister, Mrs. Mary Manto, 45, both of Old Colony rd., South Boston, are members of a gang of shop-lifters who have been operating in Greater Boston during the last couple of years, Police Sergt. Joseph F. Condon reported.

All three pleaded not guilty and Judge Adlow continued their cases until Jan. 29 and set bail at $3000 double surety.

Sergt. Condon, who with Detective Albert Hurst and Perfer

Already more than $5000 in ladies' garments, shoes, radios and jewelry has been recovered. Sergt. Condon says more arrests will include the gang's "fence."

AWOL WORKER TO BE TAGGED

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 22 (AP) —The Bell Aircraft Company will label "AWOL" workers who fail to obtain permission to be absent.

An "AWOL" card will replace their usual time card and approval from the foreman or department head will be required before the time card can be returned, and work resumed.

Lawrence D. Bell, company president, said in a message posted today at the company's plants that "absentees can lose the victory we are all working towards. The number of absentees in our plants must be cut to a minimum."

The rules also stipulate workers desiring time off must get permission from their foreman or department head, at least one day in advance; those absent must telephone their plant, or have someone else do so, explaining their absence; those who are sick must bring a doctor's certificate when they return to work.

LAWYER WARS ON RUTLEDGE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP) —Opposition from a Washington lawyer delayed Senate judiciary sub-committee approval today of President Roosevelt's nomination of Wiley Blount Rutledge of Iowa to the United States Supreme Court.

Edmond C. Fletcher, the lawyer, told Chairman O'Mahoney (D.) of Wyoming he wanted an opportunity to question the appointee at a hearing before the sub-committee.

O'Mahoney asked him if he "wanted to try a law suit over before this committee," and was told "no."

O'Mahoney announced he would take up Fletcher's request at an executive meeting of the sub-committee.

Fletcher told the senator he wanted to show "lack of judicial integrity."

RAILROADS ARE HAULING WARTIME FREIGHT AT LOWEST COST PER MILE SINCE 1918

NEARLY everybody knows that the railroads today are hauling the largest volume of freight in their history.

But few know at what low cost!

For every ton of freight the railroads move one mile they receive an average of 0.927¢ — less than a cent a mile.

That is less than what they received for the same job in 1941 — less than in any year going back to 1918.

We think this is the kind of news the American people like to hear.

You may wonder how in times like these the railroads can render such service at so low a cost, for surely, as with other industries, they must be paying higher wages and more for practically everything they need to "keep 'em rolling."

Yes, railroad wage levels are up 14%.

That is because in December, 1941, as a result of mediation and the intervention of the Special Presidential Board, there was an increase in railroad labor wage rates that "upped" railroad payrolls about $400,000,000 a year.

In addition, materials the railroads use now cost 18 per cent more—an increase of approximately $110,000,000 a year.

To offset partly higher wage and material costs, the Government granted the railroads in February and March, 1942, freight rate increases averaging 4.7% and a passenger fare increase averaging 9%.

This was expected to return about $350,000,000 a year to the railroads.

But emergencies and factors of war have more than cancelled the aid the railroads were expected to receive from slightly increased freight and passenger rates.

For example—

When the submarine menace caused a diversion to rail of certain bulk commodities that formerly came by water—such as oil and petroleum products, sugar and rubber—the railroads voluntarily reduced their rates for such commodities in order to keep their cost low to the public. They also passed reduced rates on to ammunition, too.

The cut in rates on oil for the East Coast area alone amounts to $158,000,000 a year.

In addition, the railroads voluntarily reduced passenger rates for soldiers and sailors traveling on leave to 1¼¢ a mile—a saving to our boys which adds up to approximately $70,000,000 a year.

All in all, then, the railroads have given back to the public almost as much as they have received from the slight rate increases. So, in final analysis, the railroads are receiving less per mile for freight hauled than in any year since 1918.

Yet there are some people who would have you believe that the Interstate Commerce Commission should rescind the freight increase allowed the railroads. For the first time in years, they see the railroads showing signs of improved earnings, and forthwith want rates cut. They forget the years when railroad earnings were so low as to be a matter of serious public concern, and fail to take into consideration the uncertainties of the future.

What's more, they completely overlook the fact that even if the slight freight rate increase were removed THE PUBLIC WOULD NOT AND COULD NOT BENEFIT. For so infinitesimal is the increase, as it applies to individual items and commodities, that there would be no way to pass a reduction on. Collectively, though—or in the aggregate—these minute increases help keep the railroads strong.

Now, more than ever, to continue to carry the huge war transportation load, it is vital that the railroads be strong. Anything that would weaken them would weaken the war effort.

This year the railroads are being called upon to do a bigger job even than last year. It will require every resource they can command, every piece of equipment, every atom of ingenuity.

Therefore, it is to the interest of every American to see that the RAILROADS ARE KEPT STRONG for THE WARTIME JOB so vital to this Nation:

WAR FUND DRIVE UNDER WAY

Actual solicitation of funds in the campaign to raise $7,800,000 for support of war and social agencies in the metropolitan area was under way by 40,000 volunteer workers today, following the enthusiastic, capacity-attended Greater Boston United War Fund rally at Boston Garden when Maj. Raymond Massey made a stirring appeal "for the future of America."

Maj. Massey, former stage and screen star, famous for his portrayal of Abraham Lincoln, and now an officer in the Canadian Army, stirred enthusiasm from the crowd of volunteer workers, campaign officials and civil leaders.

The veteran actor made a touching appeal for "preservation of the dignity of the individual."

Maj. Raymond Massey

His crusading talk climaxed a four-hour program which featured entertainment by a galaxy of Hollywood, stage and radio stars, and addresses by Gov. Saltonstall, Mayor Tobin, Charles Francis Adams, Fund president; Charles C. Cabot, Fund general chairman and Maj. Gen. Sherman Miles.

2 STARS DELAYED

Robert Young and Laraine Day, popular Hollywood personalities, arrived at the Garden just before the rally ended. They had been delayed in Chicago and were unable to obtain either plane or train reservations to Boston, but caught the first coach train out in an attempt to keep their engagement here. They were given an ovation by the crowd.

"This is a war which will decide whether 'one man' is worth anything," Massey said. "By the reasoning of our enemies, your notions of duty and decency, inalienable rights of men and moral responsibility are all a monstrous hoax; that for 300 years we have been growing soft and fat for their feast."

'NOT ERSATZ PEOPLE'

"But we are not an ersatz people, precisely because we have built ourselves upon the very thing that impels this Community Fund here in Greater Boston—the belief that men can live together in voluntary co-operation, mutual good will, mutual security. You have put your investment in to people—into maintaining life, liberty and pursuit of happiness of your citizens."

Massey said there can be no question about our being able to "afford it."

"We can afford nothing else," he said. "We are lost forever, if we don't keep building up people. If we fail, we deserve to be left alone, ringed by barbarians. If anyone thinks it is enough to pay taxes and buy bonds and from there on it is someone else's war—he's right, it's Hitler's war. And if anyone thinks it is enough to win the war and then it's all over—he's right. It's all over—until the next time."

"I think we would do well to make a pledge to the ones who won't come home, for the future of their children is the only stake America's dead have left in their country, now."

2 WAR HEROES

Second highlight of the program was the introduction of two war heroes—youthful Col. C. L. Carmichael, of Austin Tex., who had seen service with the famous 19th Heavy Bombardment Squadron in Java, the Philippines and the South Pacific, and Lieut. Charles L. McClure, U. S. A. A. F., who was with Doolittle on the Tokyo raid from "Shangri La."

Another high spot was the presentation of a Jap war flag, captured at Guadalcanal by Capt. Horace Fuller, of Milton, to Chairman Cabot by senior vice-chairman John Noble, a personal friend of Fuller.

HUB DRESSES UP

Leading the film stars, who participated, were Maria Montez and Sabu, the Jungle Boy, here for the premiere of their new co-starring picture, Arabian Nights; Elyse Knox, Gloria Jean, Peggy Ryan, Lynn Bari, Donald O'Connor and Nigel Bruce. Stage and screen performers from local theaters also lent their talents to the entertainment, which featured the program.

Officially designated as Red Feather Day, Boston presented one of the most colorful displays in history as all the stores co-operated in dressing show windows with displays of the emblem of the drive, or replicas of services and activities which share the fund provided by generosity of Greater Boston's people.

The Buddies' Club and the Bay State Club on Boston Common, operated by the Soldiers and Sailors' Relief Committee and the USO for entertainment of men in service held "open-house" with hundreds of visitors entering both clubhouses to witness the services their gifts help provide.

Deadline of the campaign for the mighty fund is set for Feb. 11.

It'll Be So Much Chinese to the OPA!

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (INS)—OPA officials who neglected to state "answer in English," today were biting their nails in the awful anticipation that they will receive 5000 questionnaires—filled out in Chinese.

The questionnaires, part of a mailing to all laundries dispatched with a view to establishing price ceilings, were sent to the 5000 Chinese laundries together with a set of instructions translated into Chinese by the Chinese Benevolent Ass'n.

Lacking interpreters of its own, the OPA fears that it will have to call upon the Benevolent Ass'n once more if the forms are returned with Chinese characters.

N. E. Gunners Win High Praise

New England sharpshooting aerial gunners came in for their share of praise today from Lieut. Gen. George C. Kenney, air chief in the Southwest Pacific area.

Gen. Kenney asserted that while our heavy and light bombers have been blasting Jap planes of all types from the skies over New Guinea and the Solomons, not a single American bomber or pursuit plane has been shot down by Japanese bombers.

Sergt. William Magee of Brookhaven, who participated in four air battles, and Sergt. John Wallach of Manchaug, whose Fortress shot down three Zeros over Rabaul, New Britain, were Massachusetts fliers praised by the air chief. Corp. Earle Curtis of Manchester, N. H., was listed as having taken part in four air fights.

VETERAN OF AFRICA CAMPAIGN FINDS DIMOUT GREATER PERIL

The perils of airplane and submarine attacks on ships in the Atlantic are as nothing compared with auto driving in the Massachusetts dimout.

So says Leon W. Stasiak, 23-year-old Wellesley Hills Coast Guardsman, who was at Symmes Hospital, Arlington, today, with a broken nose to prove the truth of his comparison.

Leon, recently returned from a round-trip sea journey to the North African war theater, in which he escaped injury, although his ship was attacked by planes and subs both coming and going, was one of four persons injured when the car in which they were riding crashed a tree in Pleasant st., Arlington.

Others hurt in the accident were Joseph Esposito, 25, of Summer st., Medford, who suffered a possible fractured skull and internal injuries; Marianne Tosuri, 25, of Tremont st., Winchester, head injuries, and Miss Doris Lambdin, 20, of Battery ave., Baltimore, Stasiak's fiancée, minor injuries.

Milk Shortage Seen

CAPT. LEO MARGOLIAN
Brookline Hero Is Prisoner

2 DIE IN AIR CRASH

NEWPORT, Ark., Jan. 22 (INS)—Authorities at the Army's Newport flying base announced the death of Lieut. Frederick G. Lake, 25, of Manhasset, N. Y., a student pilot, and Lieut. William B. Campbell, 23, of Richmond, Va., in a plane crash near Hoxie, Ark.

HERO FLIER, THOUGHT LOST IN AFRICA, ITALIAN CAPTIVE

Reported missing since Dec. 1, Capt. Leo Margolian, hero of an American air attack on Rommel's North African army, has been found alive, a prisoner of war of the Italians, the War Department reported today.

Official word of the young flier's safety was received by his father, Charles Mungie, circulation manager of the Record-American, in a telegram from Washington.

The brief message said only that Capt. Margolian was an Italian captive, and did not disclose where he is being held prisoner. Mr. Mungie immediately notified his son's wife, the former Lillian Braverman of Roxbury, at her Washington st., Brookline, home.

Despite earlier reports that he was missing in action, Margolian's relatives have clung tenaciously to the belief that he was alive.

Shortly after receiving the first War Department report that he was missing as of Dec. 1, his family received letters from him telling how he had flown captured German planes on several occasions after Dec. 1. The War Department later reported him missing as of Dec. 10.

Capt. Margolian and his squadron received special praise in a short-wave broadcast last October for the skill and bravery they displayed in turning back waves of Nazi fighter planes.

Proctor Replaces Storey in WPB Post

Edward O. Proctor of Newton Center has been named regional attorney of the War Production Board to succeed Charles M. Storey of Boston, Walter H. Wheeler, Jr., regional WPB director, announced today.

Storey is re-entering private practice. His successor was assistant attorney general of Massachusetts from 1937 to 1940, and is resigning as an OPA attorney to take his new post with WPB.

Report Seamen Quit on Sunday

AKRON, O., Jan. 22 (AP)—The Beacon Journal says in a copyrighted story the Navy is investigating reports that ailing marines were forced to unload their own supplies when the crew of a merchant ship lying off beleaguered Guadalcanal Island refused to work on Sunday because of union regulations.

The Beacon Journal's story, quoted in yesterday's editions, published six Guadalcanal veterans as declaring that the Marines had to take over the Sunday work after the crewmen worked two hours on Saturday and then laid off until Monday morning.

The newspaper did not disclose the identity of the veterans, but said the information came from three marines, two sailors and a Navy pilot on individual visits to Akron.

Saltonstall's War Power Curb Sought

The first legislative move to curb Gov. Saltonstall's war emergency powers was in the hands of the committee on military affairs and public safety for study today.

The resolution, sponsored by Sen. James P. McAndrews of Adams (D.), seeks to annul Executive Order 18, granting authority to the Department of Public Works to regulate the size of trucks on state roads.

Draft Registrants Get Last Warning

Draft registrants who have not been reporting their changes of address to local draft boards may escape penalties by voluntarily contacting their boards before Feb. 1, Col. Ralph M. Smith, state selective service director, announced today.

After the Feb. 1 deadline, he said, draft delinquents will be investigated by the FBI.

OPA TRAILS BLACK MARKET

Asserting that "the OPA means business," Lawrence J. Bresnahan, acting state director of the Office of Price Administration, announced today that evidence of alleged "black market" operations among wholesaler meat dealers will be turned over immediately to U. S. Atty. Edmund J. Brandon.

He said every available OPA inspector of the state office had been assigned to investigation of the "black market" in beef, and that other federal enforcement agencies were co-operating with his office.

He declined to disclose what evidence investigators had uncovered, but revealed that the OPA office has received an average of 15 complaints a day on alleged violations of price ceilings in the sale of beef.

The state probe today was reported centered in Bristol County, where it was charged large numbers of cows have been slaughtered in Westport and sold over counters in Fall River and New Bedford without being properly graded and inspected, as required by law.

Brown to Give Business Break

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The new Price Administrator, Prentiss M. Brown, intends to give business men a bigger voice in drafting the regulations under which they operate.

Brown is resolved to revive OPA's system of industry advisory committees, on the theory that many complaints of unfairness, discrimination and impracticality of price orders could be eliminated in advance if the industry concerned sat in on the preparation of each regulation.

Brown hopes also, it was reliably reported, to skeltonize OPA's enforcement division as much as possible and place enforcement of price and ration orders in the hands of United States attorneys over the country whenever possible.

Rep. Hale to Study Unrest in Shipyard

22 Maine's Congressional delegation has appointed Rep. Hale, newly elected member from the Portland district, to study reports of unrest among workers at the South Portland shipyards resulting from the recent merger of operations, the Associated Press reported today from Washington.

Sen. White (R.) of Maine, who called a meeting of the state's Congressional group to hear a spokesman of the AFL union at the yards, said future efforts of congressmen to intervene depended on Hale's report on legal questions involved.

P-38's, P-40's and Spitfire fighters and two bomber types, the B-25's and B-17's, were concentrated by the Allied command to check drives into that strategic sector and the 50-mile range of upland which the Germans covet as a barrier before their coastal communications routes.

A bombing attack was reported made on the force before Robaa.

The Italian communique said: "Yesterday, southeast and southwest of Tripoli, on a line from Gasr Garian to Tarhuna, and on the coast, fierce fighting took place between our armored forces and the enemy."

Tarhuna is the hill village 40 miles southeast of Tripoli the British captured Wednesday. Gasr Garian is 40 miles south and somewhat west of the Libyan capital.

MOVE ON AIRDROME

Observers in London said it seemed likely part of Montgomery's force might be swinging around Tripoli to the south, and that one object of such a move might be capture of Castel Benito airdrome below the city.

Day and night Allied bombing already has lessened or destroyed its value as an Axis air base, but the Allies were reported counting heavily on using it as one of their principal fields for coming all-out bombing of the Axis strongholds in Tunisia.

British military sources said that, although the exact positions of Montgomery's spearheads were not known, he was moving at a fast pace and the British occupation of Tripoli was regarded as a mopping-up operation on which the Eighth Army would waste little time.

These sources said a by-passing thrust to the coast west of Tripoli from the new positions to the south might cut off more of Rommel's forces.

These potential reinforcements for the Axis last stand in Tunisia were described as exhausted from one of the longest retreats in military history.

Weather Balks Relief Of Nazis in Red Trap

BERN, Switzerland, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Berlin correspondent of Milan's Corriere Della Sera in a report received here last night, said atmospheric conditions had reduced to the minimum the flying of food supplies to encircled Axis troops before Stalingrad.

The Axis forces now have been isolated for several weeks, the correspondent said, lacking necessary food and subjected to ceaseless artillery fire and attacks from all sides.

An account in Mussolini's Il Popolo d'Italia said that Italian aces, some of whom had taken part in the Spanish civil war, had been brought back from the Russian front to aid in the defense of Naples and other Italian cities.

Reds Hammer Germans In Huge Rostov Arc

MOSCOW, Jan. 22 (AP)—New Red army hammer-blows along a huge arc centering at Rostov-on-Don have carried Russian forces into Voroshilovsk, in the northern Caucasus, lying open the strategic oil-rich region south of Rostov to the fast-moving Soviet legions, Russian authorities said today.

The arc extends through the Don and Donets basins into the Voronezh sector from where the Russian high command has pointed its offensives south and southwest toward Kharkov, Voroshilovgrad, Likhaya and the north shore of the Sea of Azov west of Rostov.

All along that arc, it was indicated in dispatches from the front and in official war bulletins, the Red Army is carving out chunks of the defense lines the Germans originally established in 1941.

Along the middle portion of the arc, in the lower Don valley, there has been little reported lately of Russian success. Here the Red Army spearhead is poised about 60 miles east of Rostov.

But in the Voronezh area and co-ordinated offensives aimed ultimately at Rostov, the Russian columns were reported thrusting between Kursk and Kharkov at the north end of the arc; within 20 miles of the Donets Basin industrial and rail center of Voroshilovgrad; toward the rail junction of Likhaya, less than 70 miles north of Rostov; and toward Salsk, a rail center, 100 miles southeast of Rostov.

JAP PRISONERS FAR FROM MOODY; ADOPT U. S. SLANG

(The following story was written by Sergt. Samuel Sheller, of Washington, a Marine Corps combat correspondent, and distributed by the Associated Press.)

Somewhere in the South Pacific, January 9 (delayed)—Behind barbed-wire entanglements at this marine corps base is the largest concentration of Japanese war prisoners in the world.

To the visitor fortunate enough to gain admittance, this prison camp provides a liberal education in the upsetting of firmly-held beliefs about the inscrutable Nipponese.

Jap officers, enlisted men and laborers captured at Guadalcanal by marines—those I have seen—are anything but resigned and sullen prisoners of war, who brood about the misery of their lot, as they are pictured in many reports I have read.

RAPID READJUSTMENT

Once over his astonishment that he is being treated like a human being, and given more food than he has probably had for some time, the Jap undergoes a rapid readjustment. Often he becomes a happy-go-lucky prisoner with a passion for horse-play, cigarettes, American slang and swing tunes.

Imagine Tojo's discomfort if he knew that his warriors were calling each other "Hachi Maru," which is Japanese for "8-ball." This started recently when two Marines visited the camp to polish up the Japanese they had studied. One leatherneck called the other an "8-ball."

A prisoner, who possessed a smattering of English, asked what that meant. When it was laboriously explained, a smile wreathed his puckered features. He said: "Hachi Maru." Within an hour, these words were on the tongue of every prisoner.

Nor would Tojo appreciate the sentiments displayed by another prisoner, when someone mentioned Germany in his presence. With thumb and forefinger of his left hand he gripped his nose firmly, while the right hand shot forward in a Hitlerian salute.

IGNORANT ON WAR

The Jap soldier or sailor knows far less about the war than any man in the uniform of the United Nations. Officers are astounded by the state of general ignorance of world events in which the Japs have been kept.

Eight-man tents, which they keep scrupulously clean, house the prisoners. Rveille is at 6 a. m., rollcall at 6:30, breakfast at 7, lunch at noon, supper at 5:30 p. m., another rollcall at 6 and Taps at 8.

Each prisoner is allotted five native cigarettes daily, but they would gladly trade them all for an American cigarette. Their taste for things American doesn't stop there. Their favorite expression is "O. K." and their favorite tunes, American swine.

He's retiring from the academic life but not from the active life, he says.

War's Reverse Side

CAPTAIN EDDIE RICKENBACKER'S harrowing experiences in the South Pacific have not impaired his sound, forthright American outlook. In fact, it has only at a keener edge on it.

He finds that it is the much-despised "rugged individualism" that is winning this war, and not collectivism.

In a recent address in New York, Captain Rickenbacker, in his own rugged and outspoken way, laid it on the line as follows:

"We spent billions of dollars to take away rugged individualism, enthusiasm, self-reliance, imagination and initiative. We thought these things could be planned by a super-few. I say to you now that we are spending billions of dollars to teach the youth of America self-reliance, initiative, rugged individualism and imagination."

"In the South Pacific, for example, they are on their own. When they go overseas as Commandos they're on their own. When they drop behind enemy lines as parachute troops they're on their own. When they fly airplanes through the skies they're on their own."

The American people have suddenly come to recognize the truth of Rickenbacker's words. It is the rugged individualism of our free-born youth and the rugged individualism of the free-enterprise system that are winning the war.

The billions of dollars that were thrown away in socialistic planning by the "super-few" could be used now to save not the New Deal but the America of the founding fathers, who were all RUGGED INDIVIDUALISTS.

War is a frightful catastrophe, but, like all ills, it has its reverse side.

The reverse side of this war, as Captain Rickenbacker points out, is that it is bringing back our youth to ideals of SELF-RELIANCE, STURDINESS, INDIVIDUAL INITIATIVE and, in a word, RUGGED SELFHOOD.

SONG WRITERS—Get busy; there's an important war job for you! Actually, it's very simple. All you've got to do is compose a song which the WAACs will consider worthy of their role in America's victory effort.

Tin Pan Alley tried for months to please their ladies with professionally penned tunes and failed in every attempt.

The titles were intriguing, as evidenced by such samples as "I've Got a WAAC on My Hands and a WAVE in My Hair," "I'm Wacky Over Something in Khaki," "I'm Doing the WAAC, WAAC, WAAC, WAAC Walk," and "Nimitz Is the Limitz," but the words never measured up to tastes and standards of the female army.

Says an irate WAAC officer: "That WAAC, WAAC, WAAC, WAAC stuff sounds too much like a duck. We don't want to march like that. We need something more inspirational."

Perhaps one of our many talented readers will get paper and pencil immediately and produce a ditty the WAACs will be wacky about. At least, that's what we're hoping.

LETTERS FROM SOLDIERS are an important and necessary part of the New England literary diet.

These messages, many of them written in the heat of battle to wives, mothers and sisters at home, often tell the story of the war better and more forcefully than the polished newspaper and magazine articles of dollar-a-word authors.

Particularly interesting was the letter from Private William T. Scanlan of East Seventh st., South Boston, published in Thursday's American.

"I'm in the pink and patiently waiting for this war to cease—permanently," said Private Scanlan. "Here in North Africa I met a couple and I get along well with them. Imagine conversing in a private home thousands of miles from Boston in a foreign tongue."

This should encourage high school students to pay more attention to language courses. Like Private Scanlan, the youngsters may find their knowledge unexpectedly useful later on.

It should also encourage teachers to place less stress on the eccentricities of grammar and more stress on the desirability of really speaking a foreign language.

PLASTIC HELICOPTERS are the latest things to be forecast for postwar America.

The prophet in this instance is William Z. Safka, engineer for the Glenn L. Martin Aircraft Co., who says:

"The 'airmobile' will be far lighter than present-day passenger planes, but will have a tensile strength greater than steel. You will be able to order your helicopter in any color your wife selects, and it will be fade-, rust- and dent-proof."

"It will cost about $1200, will fly six miles on a gallon of gasoline, and will land safely in any automobile parking space."

These imaginative predictions serve a worthwhile purpose; they lift us up into the clouds of fantasy, far out of reach of grim reality.

The active mind, which can dream of helicopters while the family car stands idle and gas-less in a garage, is a precious wartime asset, and it is one vehicle which no wise government will ever restrain with pleasure bans or "A" cards.

She's adorned amply
That in her husband's eyes

The truest mirror that an honest wife
Can see her beauty in.
—JOHN TOBIN.

M^R. TOBIN'S observation deserves the careful consideration of all husbands. If when she has a new hat a wife eagerly asks a husband, "How do you like it?" This proves she loves him... This year is the 50th anniversary of the introduction of the comic strip to the pages of newspapers in the United States. The first comic strip was R. F. Outcault's "Hogan's Alley"... The current war has been styled a "mechanics' war." This brings to mind that at the age of 16 Eddie Rickenbacker was an experienced mechanic in Columbus, O. Eddie was an assistant to Strayer, the man who introduced the left-hand drive to automobiles. Yes, sir, at one time all autos had a right-hand drive... Was recently reported in the German press that Hitler said to one of his generals: "I believe we will win this war, but if we lose I will not sneak away as the Kaiser did. I have a golden bullet reserved for the emergency." Have you heard the song some of the lads in the armed forces are singing:

Oh! may that rat, A. Hitler, float
On stormy seas in an open boat
In Iceland's cold without a coat.
Glory Hallelujah!

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL: As many old popular songs are being revived, why not Ernest Ball's "To Have, To Hold, To Love"... In England on questionnaires married women never write "housewife" opposite occupation. They put down "home manager"... The town of T. B., Maryland, is named after Thomas Brooks, who was always addressed as "T. B." by the people of that vicinity... All editors, advertising copy writers and men who wish, for practical reasons, to attract the attention of the feminine public should memorize the following astute observation by Nancy Hale: "A married woman's greatest interest is her child; her greatest problem is her husband and child"... According to the official war records at Washington, the youngest member of the United States armed forces of all time was Joseph Green, who at the age of 12 was a private in the Revolutionary War.

PRIVATE BREGER ABROAD

"I wish he'd learn the difference between our helmets and the enemy's!"

QUERIES FROM CLIENTS: Q—When a horse loses by a photo finish how much difference is there in the time he ran the distance and that of the winner? A—An electric timer once revealed that a horse losing by a photo finish completed the distance thirteen one hundredths of a second slower than the winner... Q—Did Fred Allen ever appear in a show with Libby Holman? A—They were both featured in "Three's a Crowd"... Q—Why do coffee shop hostesses always carry menu cards? A—One coffee shop manager told me it was because if they didn't carry menu cards the hostesses wouldn't know what to do with their hands. Another told me it was to stop them from biting their finger nails... Q—Wasn't Primo Carnera the largest man to hold the world's heavyweight boxing title? A—Carnera was quite a mass of manhood but he was not the largest champion. That was Charles Freeman, the first American to hold the title. Charlie was 7 feet 3 inches tall and weighed 333 pounds... Q—Isn't Percy a terrible name for a kid to have? Has there ever been a great man named Percy? A—Truly great men overcome all handicaps, even that of being named Percy. As for great Percys, we have had Percy Hammond, the dramatic critic; Percy Haughton, the football coach, and Percy Crosby, the comic strip artist.

SIDELIGHTS: Among the recent quaint rulings coming from Washington is that all bread be home sliced. This should not be a hardship to the smart home manager. There is available a popular-priced gadget that not only slices bread quickly but slices it at any desired thickness. Some of the market sliced bread is too thickly sliced... Am asked by a number of young women of 18 why the age limit for the WAACs and WAVES is not lowered. I don't know why it isn't, but think it should be. Many young women of 18 are extremely sensible, efficient and intelligent. As a rule a girl of 18 is generally smarter than a man of 21.

ASIDES: Add films I would like to see again: "Hell Below," which was a thrilling film account of the adventures of the crew of a submarine. Remember it? Should be revived not only for entertainment but to give the public an idea what a submarine crew has to go through... Dispatch states "Gloria Vanderbilt Di Cicco paid part of the expenses of her wedding to Actors' Agent Pat Di Cicco." (The amount Gloria contributed to these expenses was $11,790)... Official Nazi Press Photographer Franz Hoffman recently stated the reason Hitler has been so many times photographed with his hands on his hips is because Der Fuehrer is very proud of the shape of his hands.

First Lady

PROUD TO SPONSOR LAUNCHING OF SECOND 'YORKTOWN'

By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

(Copyright, 1943, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY—I am back in Washington and today am flying down to christen the new "Yorktown." I christened the first one and she acquitted herself well and am proud that they have asked me to christen the second one.

As she goes down the ways, I shall pray that she will see the end of the war and will be used in the future for peaceful patrol work. Whatever happens to her, I feel sure that ship and men will live up to the traditions of the Navy, which are becoming more glorious day by day.

THE WORKMEN who have built these ships in record time to replace those which the enemy has taken from us deserve our gratitude. Without their hard work, we could not have the faith we have in the staunchness of our ships, nor the sense of security that all human power can do has been done to make every ship seaworthy.

Our shipbuilders must be skilled men, for I think that I told you that in Liverpool, England, an old hand at inspecting ships was sure that no ship could be built as rapidly as Mr. Kaiser's, and still be any good.

To convince himself, he went on board to look for all the things he felt would be wrong and could not find a single thing to criticize.

AT EVENING MEETING in Montreal on Tuesday night, the band played the various national anthems in stirring fashion. I realized what these songs do to lift the spirits of a people. In the mail a few days ago, I received a letter from an American citizen, who says we should play the Marseillaise more often over the radio. French people may not be allowed to sing it themselves in occupied France, but they may be glad to hear it when they risk their lives to listen to foreign news on secret radios.

THE BOYS CLUBS OF AMERICA have adopted a pre-service training plan to give boys fourteen years of age and over basic training which helps them when they enter the armed forces. Every boy will receive a medical examination and efforts will be made to remedy the defects discovered.

When a boy is physically fit, he will be given Army approved exercises under trained supervision.

THESE ARE DESIGNED to increase his strength, endurance and muscular co-ordination. All boys will learn to swim and instruction will be offered them in many subjects which may later be used either in peacetime occupations or in war, should they be called upon to serve.

We hope that most of this training will be useful for the peace which we pray we may establish permanently. It seems to me good training for any boy.

Do you know what owner of a prosperous Hollywood night club is writing to his ex-customers, now in the armed services, asking them to pay up their accounts because he "needs the money"? . . . Was Henry Kaiser, the shipbuilder, recent purchaser of a $350 toy train? . . . Have you heard that when their studio asked Bob Hope and Bing Crosby to stage a fake "feud," to stimulate publicity for "They Got Me Covered," they both refused, because they're too genuinely fond of each other.

CAROL BRUCE

THE MARCH of EVENTS

By BENJAMIN DECASSERES

I DOUBT whether there is a brain functioning today in the world of politics and economics that has less content of real intelligence than that of Harold Laski, near-Communist English labor party leader and chronic pussy-footer throughout the United States, where he "reveals" to hick-minded audiences the "Curse of Capitalism" which hovers over them.

He lately told the world, as you may recall, that England's early reverses were due to the fact that England was not a socialistic state. That is a good illustration of how prejudice takes the place of intelligence in Mr. Laski's noodle, for Russia, a super-socialistic state, got a terrible drubbing from Germany, which, by the way, is also a socialistic state, for the word Nazi is the abbreviation of National Socialist Party.

JAPAN IS NOT a socialistic state. Is that what makes her so strong, Mr. Laski? He also shuts his eye completely to the fact that for several years Britain, a non-socialistic state, stood off Germany in one of the most heroic defenses of any time after the Blum Socialists and Communists of France had laid the latter country at Hitler's feet. When France fell, as I have also pointed out here, she had more than 70 Communists and a hundred or two Socialists of varying litters in her Parliament.

And the rising power of the U. S. A.—which power, by the way, may pull Communistic Russia out of the ditch—is that due to socialism? There is no state in the world that is less socialistic than America. It is a capitalistic state in the best sense of that misused word "capitalistic." And we are the most powerful and freest country in the world—and we've never lost a war.

"AN ENEMY ALIEN but an American at heart" writes this meaty letter to March of Events:

"Your reference to revoking citizenship papers used as a cloak to cover up subversive activities and that the U. S. A. has been lax in the past by merely asking the regulation questions was perfect. But you were wrong when you wrote that prospective citizens should be made to understand that they should be Americans in spirit. Any one can promise or swear to that. I say that they not only should be given a test in character but investigated one by one by the FBI to make sure that they live and act in the American way. They should be Americans before they become one."

That last line of my correspondent sums up the whole question of who's who and what's what in the United States—"They should be Americans before they become one."

Many have come to this country merely for the purpose of having an "easier time" than they had in Europe. On the other hand, millions of Europeans have come here who were better Americans at heart than many born here. Then there is a third element—I mean native-born Americans who are traitors at heart to everything that is American.

through Grand Central Station, all singing "Buckle Down Winsocli" on their way to the Boston train . . . Col. Stoopnagle, the inventor of all kinds of impossible household gadgets, who had to close his country home because he couldn't convert his oil furnace!

ALL AROUND THE TOWN: Midnighters are baffled by Commr. Valentine's latest edict. He ordered night club performers to wear non-revealing costumes—which is what they've been wearing all season—and prohibited picture-taking in cafes. Nobody has figured out the latter ruling, but it's going to break a lot of Hollywood hearts . . . Wendell Willkie and H. V. Kaltenborn sat flush against the piano on the Persian Room floor the other night and Willkie slapped the instrument in glee as John Haysradt tore Raymond Gram Swing to confetti in a wicked impersonation. Rival commentator Kaltenborn merely chuckled . . . You've seen old gray mares, white horses, black horses, et al, but if you want to see horses of another color, take a gander at the two "albino" steeds who lug Leon & Eddie's opera bus for patrons through the midtown area. Roy and LeRoy (those are their names) are a sort of a cross between strawberry blonde and honey blonde—about the color West Coast hairdressers make most movie queen's tresses. In fact, I would say the horses probably copied Rita Hayworth's shade.

HAVE YOU HEARD that Brock Pemberton is dreaming about a new and very different role for his protege, Gwen Anderson of "Janie"? . . . Don't you think Rowena Chapel of the Riobamba group is a sure bet for pictures? . . . Is Governor Dewey having a hard time finding the right man for boxing commissioner? . . . Doesn't Cary Grant's signature on that five-picture deal cancel his plans for going into the armed services?

NEW SCREEN LOVER FOUND;
RESEMBLES VALENTINO

By Louella O. Parsons

Copyright, 1943, by International News Service

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 22—Not since Rudolph Valentino made the girls' hearts go pit-a-pat has any Latin actor had such a buildup as Arturo De Cordova. Not that Arturo is in the least like the late Rudy—they are entirely different in type. Rudy was, I suppose we might say, more romantic. Yet, in the opinion of Y. Frank Freeman of Paramount, Arturo has all that it takes to be the No. 1 screen lover.

Freeman has lined up a list of dazzling assignments for him, the first of which is "Hostages" with Luise Rainer; then "Frenchman's Creek," opposite Joan Fontaine, and lastly the long-discussed "Rurales."

These three, you will admit, are top assignments and are only the beginning of what Paramount intends to do for their Latin American actor.

IF KATHERINE CORNELL has any qualms about the way in which she photographs on the screen she should listen to Sol Lesser, who wires me that the Cornell test is beautiful and that she appeared in "Stage Door Canteen" last Friday.

She has always feared the camera. Helen Hayes played a scene and Katharine Hepburn will appear in a special skit written by Robert Sherwood. Teresa Wright, Mary Pickford and other Hollywood actresses will make their scenes when Sol returns from New York, and he would like to have a song by ALISON SKIPWORTH Dinah Shore.

The money from this picture goes to the American Theater Wing, Hollywood Canteen and the Naval Aid Auxiliary.

JOHN STEINBECK has a new novel coming out very soon and it is entirely different from "Grapes of Wrath," "Tortilla Flat," "Of Mice and Men," or "The Moon Is Down."

It is, believe it or not, a mystery thriller. The idea was given to him by Alfred Hitchcock and is actually the same story, "Life Boat," that Hitch is to produce and direct for 20th Century-Fox.

It was just an idea but good enough to intrigue Steinbeck, so he wrote the book on his own. He was not assigned to do it by William Goetz, but naturally 20th will buy the book for the Hitchcock picture. That was decided before the novel was half finished.

ALISON SKIPWORTH, known to many of her friends as Skippy, is back in town and ready to go to work in the movies. There is a need for good character actresses since the passing of May Robson, Edna May Oliver and Laura Hope Crews. Skippy told me she had been in innumerable plays, most of which ran from Monday to Saturday. "But," she added, "the critics were kind to me."

I HAD FORGOTTEN how many wonderful tunes Irving Berlin had written until he walked into the Mocambo the other night and the orchestra started playing the Berlin repertoire. Irving got a "hand," too. "This Is the Army" has made so much money for the government that I hear a major lot is planning a movie along the same lines glorifying the Navy.

They played "The Bee"; Germaine Gates, 20-year-old Glendale boy who was wounded by the Japs, realizes his life's ambition when he escorts June Lang to the premiere of "In Which We Serve."

A friend introduced her as a South American actress and Hedy jumped up, shook her hand and was so gracious. Alicia, who comes from Honduras, has been talking about nothing else; Jimmy Howe, the popular Chinese cameraman, has been recruited by the Chinese Embassy to do some camera work abroad, so Jimmie is saying au revoir to his pals for the duration; Scott Darling, well known writer, has confirmed the report that he is secretly wed to Violet Cavetti. That's all today. See you tomorrow!

BENEFITS TO ALL PLANNED IN WIDER SOCIAL SECURITY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Coming to a head in Washington are proposed changes in our Social Security system which would extend its benefits to all classes of employees and their dependents.

Sec. of Labor Frances Perkins has made the first official statement about the probable new legislation and Sen. Robert F. Wagner has declared his willingness to sponsor a comprehensive bill which would place the program well abreast of the proposals in the recent "revolutionary" plan submitted to the British people and Parliament by Sir William Beveridge.

DEPENDENTS PROVIDED FOR

Benefits would be included for permanently disabled workers and for their dependents, irrespective of age, and generally similar to the present old-age benefits.

They also would furnish benefits for temporarily disabled workers and their dependents, like the present unemployment benefits but broader. A third provision would be for hospitalization of insured workers and their dependents.

An important addition would be maternity benefits.

Dependents of workers would be provided for in all cases.

Within the social security system would be some 20,000,000 workers who still are outside it—agricultural workers, domestic servants, and employees of certain types of small firms.

Who would pay for all this?

SAME COST TO EMPLOYERS

Employers in the main now pay four per cent on payrolls and employees pay 1 per cent. By the first of 1944, however, existing legislation provides that employers will be paying five per cent and employees two per cent.

The new proposals would be financed by a scheme which would take 5 per cent from the employer and 5 per cent from the employee.

Thus employers would not pay any more under the new plan than they would be paying anyway, while the employee would pay an additional 3 per cent, but for greatly broadened benefits and out of increased wartime wages.

Officials point out that in both cases this 5 per cent figure might rise to 6 per cent because of the 20,000,000 or so new workers who would be brought into the system.

Offers Steaks For Kisses, She Calls Cop

ALBANY, Cal., Jan. 22 (INS)—A rationing problem not specifically covered by OPA regulations today was docketed for trial in police court.

It started when Mrs. Jeannette Thymian, 28, went into Nicholas Demetry's butcher shop to buy meat.

"He wouldn't sell me any meat unless I would come into the back room and give him a kiss," she declared.

After she refused—emphatically and with gestures—Mrs. Thymian said Demetry sold her the meat, but insisted on writing his telephone number on the package.

She went home, grabbed her phone—and called a cop.

Demetry pleaded not guilty and was freed in $250 bail.

Though Police Comr. Timilty's official car (Reg. 239) is kept in the Hyde Park police garage, somebody sabotaged the big machine, he made known today, and it has been necessary to send the auto back to the dealer to have the gas tank removed and cleaned.

The commissioner, ill at his Hyde Park home for a couple of days, decided to visit police headquarters last night. He hadn't proceeded far, however, when the car bogged down and refused to run. Timilty completed the journey by taxicab.

Today it was discovered that somebody had dropped a quantity of confetti—fine paper into the fuel tank and the gas could not feed.

YOUNGSTERS KEEP 'EM FLYING

Model Plane Builders Get Gas

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Ronnie Ingraham of nearby Bethesda, Md., isn't worried about the gasoline shortage.

His "E" ration book has five coupons left—enough to keep the "Phantom" flying for six months or more.

Each coupon is good for one gallon. The "Phantom's" tank holds about an ounce of gas, and Ronnie fills it with an oil can.

And office of price administration officials said today that the gas rationing regulations will permit 14-year-old Ronnie and his fellow model plane builders all over the country to keep 'em flying as long as it's humanly possible.

Because it's the experience of building and flying such models that often makes the deadly difference—years later—between an American pilot and an enemy pilot. Many a mechanic who managed to keep Allied planes flying under the most adverse circumstances learned his ingenuity via the model plane route.

"Some of these youngsters also are building miniature replicas of Allied and enemy planes for the various pilot schools, thus helping train their older brothers even as they prepare themselves for future flying service," an OPA spokesman said.

"They know the inner workings of a plane long before they're big enough to reach the rudder pedals with their feet. They know exactly what each part is for and the entire principle of aircraft operation."

So the gasoline shortage is going to get pretty bad before Ronnie and his pals are refused a thumbful for the operation of America's first "primary training planes."

VIRGINIA TO RATION LIQUOR

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 22 (AP)—A liquor rationing system, with a purchase unit subject to change without prior notice, will go into effect in Virginia Feb. 1 after a ten-day suspension of sales while prospective purchasers are registered, the State Liquor Board announced today.

All liquor stores will be closed today and tomorrow, and will be open only for registration purposes for the remainder of this month.

The quantity of unit purchasing will be announced by Feb. 1 and is to be determined upon the basis of the number of registrants and the amount of liquor on hand.

Members of the armed forces stationed in Virginia will be registered under the direction of their commanding officers as soon as forms can be obtained. Transients in the state will register on or after Feb. 1.

Hard liquors are obtainable only in state dispensaries in Virginia.

Oxidized Cotton Seen Pneumonia Preventative

By GOBIND BEHARI LAL
 International News Service Science Editor
 NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (INS)—A study with oxidized cotton has revealed a most important secret of the defense of the human body against pneumonia and other disease germs, it was learned today at Columbia University.

Prof. Michael Heidelberger of the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, with collaboration of Dr. Gladys L.
 Hobby, has made this noteworthy discovery: that particles of oxidized cotton act chemically like certain substances in pneumonia germs of a particular type.

This means that a simple material like cotton, under special but easily given chemical treatment, might be turned into a substance for preventing pneumonia of a particular type.

The New York scientist says that his discovery is an advance towards development of methods for predicting just how the human or animal body will react to disease germ substances whose chemical composition is known.

From this basis further progress might be made towards developing of synthetic "antibodies," artificial vaccine like materials to prevent definite diseases produced by specific germs.

For the present Dr. Heidelberger only emphasizes the principle that there is a definite, measure-able relation between the chemical constitution of a germ poison and its effects in the human body.

 man Will Rogers, Jr., protesting the $25,000 ceiling on salaries.

Kenneth Thomson, head of the Screen Actors Guild, telephoned the young congressman today. He said Miss Rogers' letter did not in any way express the sentiment of the industry; that her letter was ill advised and that she had no right to speak officially for the motion picture people.

"If Miss Rogers wanted to express an opinion and make a personal petition," said Thomson,
 "that is her own business and her right. But the letter has political implications and we have people in Hollywood better qualified to represent us."

"Miss Rogers should not have given any official implication to her letter."

The industry thought it serious enough to consider calling a meeting at which the heads of the various guilds—producers, actors, writers and directors—would be represented.

STABBED IN THE BACK BY ARTHRITIS

NOW is the time to many people suffering from nagging arthritis pains in back, knees, shoulders and hands never suspect that these pains may be caused, in some cases, by excessive acids within the body.

As a dietary aid to the faster excretion of these excessive acids which in turn may lead to bringing speedier pain relief, Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets were invented by a well-known food nutritionist. Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets contain food sodium and food iodine, two minerals of nutritional value which may prove to be helpful to many arthritis sufferers. Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets are free from all harmful chemical ingredients. They positively do not contain injurious ingredients of any kind.

MEAT MORE PLENTIFUL; BREAD PRICE DOWN; CELERY CHEAP

By PAULINE WARREN

There is a little more meat to be found, but the Chains are still very short.

One large chain is substituting for steaks and roasts a "special" on fancy, milk-fed roasting chickens for 43 cents a pound and several fish specials, including swordfish steaks at 49 cents a pound.

Big news of the week-end, however, to the average housewife is that this same chain has reduced its price on bread to 9 cents, now that it is no longer sliced. Included are four varieties—raisin bread, Swedish rye, wheat and cracked wheat. White bread remains two loaves for 19 cents.

CELERY SPECIAL

Another special is Pascal celery for seven cents a bunch at a chain of help yourself markets. Just a few weeks ago celery was selling around 40 cents.

Ducks and broilers are scarce and a little high—34 cents for duck and 40 and 42 cents a pound for broilers and frying chickens.

Potatoes have gone up wholesale, due to frost, but the big chains are absorbing the loss and keeping the price to the consumers stable at 49 cents a peck.

There are several unusual things to be found at Faneuil Hall providing a meal planner with variety with which to spice her meatless dinners.

Papaya Melons, for instance, a tropical, succulent, golden melon, is selling very well at 20 cents a pound. It is a good substitute for Spanish and Honey Dew Melons. FLORIDA ORANGES IN "Temple" oranges are also in this week-end. They come from Florida and are a cross between a tangerine and an orange. Exceedingly sweet and juicy, as well as large and ruddy, they sell at 60c a dozen.

With sugar scarce, it's difficult to give the children their required sweets. Cocoanuts at 25c each are an excellent substitute and the milk within them is highly nutritious. Comb honey can be had for 35c.

There is an abundance of kumquats, and housewives are buying them up for pickling and jams. They sell around 20 to 25c a basket.

At Faneuil Hall there are some real Coit oysters—just in—for 40c a dozen and 75c a pint for the freshly-opened (while you wait).

And clams are back on the market but only in small quantities. They sell for 20c a basket.

Butter is still extremely scarce. Prices for the week-end were garnered from the chains, Faneuil Hall and Independents.

Carrier Lost, 507 Go Down

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Admiralty announced today that 507 British seamen, including 68 officers, were lost in the torpedo sinking of the aircraft carrier Avenger during the French North African landing operations.

The total number of men aboard was not disclosed. The Avenger was one of 16 Allied naval vessels officially listed as lost out of landing armadas estimated to have numbered 850 transports and warships.

Oil Shortage Shuts 6 Fall River Schools

FALL RIVER, Jan. 22—Because the city was unable to obtain sufficient fuel supplies, six oil-burning public school buildings will be closed temporarily and pupils transferred to other nearby schools.

School Supt. Hector L. Belisle announced today that transfer of the pupils will be completed by the middle of next week. Action closing the oil-heated buildings was voted by the school committee.

8 Sons in Service, Cooking Falls Off

MONESSEN, Pa., Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs. Charles Hubans, whose window service flag got its seventh and eighth stars today as her last two sons joined the Navy, had but one complaint to register:

"I used to buy a 15-pound roast when they were all home. For only three persons, I hardly know how to buy and cook."

She and her husband came from Austria-Hungary 34 years ago. One of their boys, Michael, 27, is missing in the Philippines. Their only daughter, Mary, 17, wants to join the WAACS when old enough.

Unlucky Store Bandit Hunted

Routes by fighting storekeepers in two holdup attempts, a pimply-faced gunman was the object of a police search today.

When L. first appeared at a variety store in Cummins highway, Roslindale, the proprietor, John Kenekean, ignored the youthful bandit's gun and grappled with him. During the tussle the gun went off once. The youth fled.

Witnesses took the number of his car, which had been reported stolen earlier in the West End. Later, the bandit tried to hold up Frank Sahagian in his store in Talbot ave., Dorchester. There was another battle and again the youth fled empty-handed.

Cover Thrills 'Miss Victory'

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—"Miss Victory" awakened this morning with that peculiar sense of "something wonderful" that only a woman who has just had a beautiful portrait completed can know!

For Barbara Ann Clark's Cosmopolitan magazine cover picture by Artist Bradshaw Crandell is all done!

The 21-year-old machine gun maker from the AC spark plug division of General Motors Corp., at Flint, Mich., is now immortalized in color at the very height of her youth and in her significant role as "typical girl war worker"—the title bestowed on her in the Hearst newspaper search for a representative of all our women in production.

JVA SEA CREW STANDS READY

Undergoing rigorous training for harbor patrol, anti-fire work at docks or other duties relieving Coast Guardsmen, the crew of the Somerville Sea Scout Ship "Hull," including Junior Victory Army members, is ready for real service in the war, George M. Vallender, the skipper, has announced.

First mate of the 40-foot training ship, bought three years ago by the Somerville Rotary Club, is Richard Walsh of Somerville High School.

As part of the Boston Boy Scout Council, this organization will benefit from the Greater Boston United War Fund, the campaign for which is going on.

To join the Sea Scouts, a boy must be 15, of good character and in good health. He first learns maritime terminology and knot tying.

Then he goes on to splicing, signaling and rules of traffic for power and sailing craft. Later he can specialize in coastwise navigation, engineering, Morse code, semaphore or blinker.

Twelve of the Somerville Sea Scouts are in service. These include Robert Barry, a high school graduate, who became second engineer on a trans-Atlantic freighter. Another became an instructor at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

To enroll in the Junior Victory Army, send your name and full address to JVA, P. O. Box 228, Boston, Mass. If, in addition, you want the red, white and blue JVA insignia pin and membership card, enclose a 10-cent coin (well-wrapped) in your letter.

Oath Not Part Of Induction

Taking the oath of allegiance is not an essential part of induction into the U. S. Army.

This decision—first ruling on the point since selective service became effective—was issued by Federal Judge Francis J. W. Ford, in dismissing the appeal of William Louis Diamond, 24, of Charlton, who sought to avoid Army service on grounds that he could not conscientiously assent to being sworn in.

Diamond, a Jehovah's Witness, had refused to take the oath and had been placed in the guard house at Ft. Devens after failing to report for duty.

Bond Bread slices clean and even because it's fuller-bodied,
closer-knit, filled with real bread goodness

Don't blame your bread knife! Sure, it's hard to cut a puffy loaf of bread. It takes a full-bodied, substantial, close-knit bread to slice easily—the way Bond slices. That's because every loaf of Bond has more flavorful, downright bread goodness inside its crisp brown crust.

More bread in every slice! That's what Bond gives you! And it's doubly important today because of higher prices and food shortages. And what bread Bond is. Milk white! Delicious! Vitamin-enriched! And remember, Bond stays fresher because it's closer-knit. Buy Bond and see!

'Deodorant Puff' Keeps You Sweet and Fresh

By ARLINE GOULD

YOU MAY BE right at that . . . that your perspiration problems are far less ubiquitous in winter. But are you SURE? And if you're not absolutely sure . . . why risk the mental discomfort of uncertainty . . . when a new mitt has been invented to dispense a perfect powder deodorant as pleasantly as a bath powder!

Surely you are no more free of nervous haste than you were in the summer! Unless you're the type of persons who's ALWAYS on time EVERYWHERE you go, you lucky thing. You hasten to a concert . . . wishing the street car would stop on it . . . you're wrapped up in the cozy pastel woollens which are such a delightful concession to fuel rationing . . . and if you're in a twit you'll "glow" . . . as the Victorians called it!

And you'll be the smart one who'll stay sweet and fresh . . . incidentally keeping those nice cashmères and fine wools in which you invested perfectly unharmed and fresh, too . . . because you've patted on a smooth film of the deodorant powder to neutralize perspiration!

The "deodorant puff" is a smart little mitt-shaped affair without a thumb . . . and the merest pat will allow the efficient deodorizing powder to sift through.

LIKE A CHARM ON TIRED FEET

They say it works like a charm, especially for hot tired feet. And now that you've given in to the sensible trend and, for the first time in years, are wearing carriage boots, overshoes, rubber boots or whatever variety of protective footgear you prefer, you find that there are times when you can't take them off (for instance, sitting next to a heater in the Rapid Transit), and the result is that, while you save yourself from the flu, your feet do feel tired and drawn at the end of the day! Using the deodorant powder will keep them feeling cooler, and certainly fresher.

To learn about this efficient new gadget, a "deodorant puff," phone Arline Gould, LIBERTY 4000, except the week-end, or write, care of the Boston Evening American, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MARTHA LEE'S DAILY DIET

Attractive New Egg Combinations

By MARTHA LEE

DUE TO EXIGENCIES caused by Hitler and Hirohito, meatless days are part of our wartime economy, but we can greet them with pleasure, knowing fresh eggs are close at hand, on their proper shelf in the refrigerator.

BAKED EGGS WITH CHEESE

Egg and Potato Casserole, served with a crisp green salad, bread and a beverage, topped with an Apple Sauce Pudding makes an adequate meal

EGG, POTATO CASSEROLE

3 tbsp. margarine or other fat
6 cups sliced potatoes
2 cups milk
1 cup grated cheese
1 tsp. salt
6 hard-cooked eggs
Melt fat; add flour; mix. Add milk and salt. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Slice eggs. Place alternate layers, potatoes, egg slices, and cheese in greased casserole. Cover with sauce. Bake in a moderate oven (325 deg. F.) 25 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

EGGS PARMESAN

1 small onion or margarine
1 No. 2 can to 6 eggs
matatoes (2½ cup fine cups)
1 tsp. sugar
½ cup grated cheese
1 tsp. salt
2 tbsp. butter
Mince onion. Simmer onion, tomatoes, sugar, salt, and butter or margarine 15 minutes. Press through a fine sieve. Poach eggs; arrange in a shallow greased baking dish. Pour hot tomato mixture over eggs. Sprinkle with crumbs and cheese. Bake in a hot oven (400 deg. F.) until brown. A vegetable plate combination of baked potatoes, sauteed mushrooms, mashed yellow turnip and green (frozen) peas should be followed by a Cheese Cake or a Buttermilk Pie.

rooms, mashed yellow turnip and green (frozen) peas should be followed by a Cheese Cake or a Buttermilk Pie.

BUTTERMILK PIE

1-3 cup margarine
1-3 cup sugar
3 egg yolks
3 tsp. flour
1½ tsp. salt
1 10-inch pie shell
lemon juice
2 cups butter-milk
3 egg whites
Cream margarine; add sugar gradually, while creaming. Add egg yolks one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add flour, salt, lemon rind, and juice; mix well. Add buttermilk. Beat egg whites stiff, but not dry; fold in carefully. Turn into baked pie shell. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 deg. F.) 45 minutes.

BAKED EGGS WITH CHEESE

Break the desired number of eggs into a hot well greased, shallow baking dish. Dot with butter or other fat, sprinkle with salt and pepper. Pour enough milk over eggs just to cover them. Sprinkle with a mixture of grated cheese and dry bread crumbs. Bake in a very moderate oven until the eggs are set and the crumbs brown.

ADRIAN KEEPS THAT DASH OF DARING IN STYLES

By BETTINA BEDWELL

ADRIAN, most famous of the movie dress designers, who not so long ago quit working for the stars and started his own business of dressing Miss and Mrs.

United States, has put one hand, at least, back to work on the stars. He has made the brilliant clothes for the film "The Powers Girls," which, having to do with clothes models, is a fashion picture.

What Adrian has done is to give us clothes that look like glamorous peacetime clothes, even though they conform strictly to L-85 restrictions. It's going to make a lot of us homesick to see them. The Adrian touch of daring, which is known as "Hollywood," is restrained in these clothes, but not absent.

In the dress sketched you can see how Adrian has done it. This is a dress worn in the film, and while it is a long-sleeved, high-necked dress of sky blue crepe, there is a daring half-moon slit over the bosom, just to make you gasp. It is highlighted by brilliant embroidery. A loosely-draped hipline topping a very slim skirt is another point.

Love

And Marriage

Had Husband Drafted

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I'm a young girl and have been married two years. In those two years my husband changed so terribly that I couldn't bear to live with him any longer.

He had a difficult childhood with a divorced mother and nine other children, and when we first married he had dreams of all we could do, etc., etc. Then he met bad influences in the pool room and didn't care to work any more. Never made a home for me and started to beat me terribly until I couldn't stand it. So I had him taken into the Army, only to get him to change his ways and treat me more kindly.

I really love him and now I'm worrying about what I did. Did I do wrong, Miss Fairfax, in having him drafted? What if he were killed? It would be all my fault. Should I have lived with him as he was, or will the Army really help him?

No, I don't think you did wrong in having your husband reclassified for eligibility in the draft. He was succumbing to evil influences met in a pool room, he didn't provide a home, and he beat you. Such a man needs the discipline of military life. Sooner or later he would have been called anyway, and you probably saved him from serious trouble in getting him away from his poolroom pals.

To my way of thinking, there is no reason why a free born American woman should put up with a husband who reverts to jungle tactics and beats his wife. My apologies to jungle denizens—apes and gorillas; they don't beat the female of the species.

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL—Whether you go in fragile laces or fine woollens . . . whether it's winter or summer . . . your daintiness should be guarded . . . and today Arline Gould has a grand suggestion, a new deodorant "powder puff." Maria Montez poses.

SMART SET

Molly Ayer to Wed Soon

By BETTY ALDEN

BECAUSE OF THE WAR, Molly Ayer, popular member of Boston's exclusive younger set, will have her wedding a long way from home and friends.

Her fiancé, James S. Hartzell, can't be spared from his work in a West Coast airplane accessories plant, long enough to come East for their wedding, so Molly has decided to pack her bags and go West.

She departs from Boston Feb. 15, and if everything works out according to present plans, the couple will be married on the 27th at a church ceremony in San Francisco.

It is not yet definite which members of the family will accompany Molly on her trans-continental journey—possibly her mother and sister, Mrs. Robert Saltonstall, and her younger sister Betsy. Her fiancé, son of Mrs. Ralph Hartzell of Denver, graduated from Yale Sheffield in 1937.

Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Bourne Ayer of Milton and Louisburg sq., the pretty blond bride-to-be is an artist of considerable talent. She studied with O'Hara in Maine and at an art school in San Francisco, where her romance began, and has had her own "one man" show at the Junior League. She belongs to the league as well as the Vincent Club and made her debut at a dance given by her uncle, Nathaniel F. Ayer, former president of the Harvard Club.

SOME 20,000 strong Boston's good neighbors thronged the Garden last night for the opening rally of the United War Fund's drive for $7,800,000. The program was studded with personal appearances of Hollywood stars, rallying speeches by leaders of the fund, and the presence of two air corps heroes of the present war.

Sitting in a box where she had a perfect view of the proceedings was the Bay State's charming First Lady wearing a black velvet dinner gown with loops of silver sequins trimming the front of the bodice, and a mink neckpiece around her shoulders. Beside her in a box with Mrs. Charles Chabot was Mrs. Raymond Massey, wife of the famous actor who was among the distinguished guests on the speakers' platform.

Mrs. Massey, petite and dark haired, wore a black taffeta gown made on simple lines with fitted bodice and long tight sleeves. This was topped by a hip length black cape sprinkled with colored sequins. Mrs. Cabot, whose better half is the popular chairman of this year's fund, wore short white gloves with her black dinner gown and a jacket of platinum fox.

ALSO ATTENDING were Mrs. Allen Forbes in a tangerine lace gown, Mrs. John Palfrey, Mrs. Robert Lovett, Mrs. Richard Saltonstall, the Governor's mother, Mrs. Maurice Tobin, also in black with a Persian coat, and Mrs. John A. Moir.

Movie star Lynn Barrie won a rousing cheer when she stepped into the spotlight and announced she formerly lived in Melrose. With a mink coat tossed over her shoulders she wore a perky black hat and black silk suit with a yoke the color of the fund's familiar red feather. Blonde Elise Knox of Hollywood also wore black trimmed with red feather red, and red and black sandals with the highest platform soles we've seen yet.

FOREST LOVE FILM AT MET.

By PEGGY DOYLE

Susan Hayward's flaming top-knot and Paulette Goddard's ditto personality compete with a most realistic Technicolor forest fire in "The Forest Rangers," Paramount's dazzling outdoor coooper-doooper on the Met screen.

The glamor-gals likewise do some fairly strenuous eye-rolling for that incredible hunk of resistance, Fred MacMurray. Paulette gets the forest ranger... her contract virtually guarantees it... but that spunky, little Hayward girl is no slouch in the clinches.

Best shot in this not too lively fresh-air sortie is the "bundling" sequence. Miss Hayward, head of a log-rolling outfit, has long been secretly enamored of MacMurray, whose heart does a double-somersault at first sight of the city-bred Paulette. With the easy assurance of a Mounie, Paulette gets her forest ranger and hogties him in 24 hours. It is pretty much of a shock when Susan arrives to welcome home the big lug and discovers Miss Goddard prettily accepting good wishes for the happiness of her and her bridegroom.

But Susan doesn't give up easy. She frames an accident to her car when they are in the forest where MacMurray is checking up clues on a pyromaniac who has made possible some very handsome fire-capes. The three have to camp out all night but there is little sleep for any of them as Susan rooks Paulette out of her place in the middle and Miss Goddard promptly outmaneuvers her.

Another bright spot in the slow-motion unreeing is Miss Goddard's log-rolling nonsense with co-stars MacMurray and Hayward. Aside from these two standout sequences, "The Forest Rangers" is pretty much of a Burton Holmes travelogue... a lot of gab and gudjus scenery.

That fellow MacMurray is still saving his face for something or other, only giving out with those standard smiling and glum expressions. The girls, two armful of quicksilver, do their part to make for the lack by their vivacity and all-around decorativeness.

And did you know that that jangle that's been jangling on the juke-boxes for so long, "Jingle Jangle," is one of the two tunes in "The Forest Rangers." The other one is "Tall Grows the Timber."

HOTTEST THING ON ICE is Sonja Henie, star of the 20th Century-Fox musical romance, "Ice Land," which continues through next Wednesday on the Bijou screen.

a nice ballad by Frank Loesser and Frederic Hollander. The co-feature is "Ice-Capades Revue," with Jerry Colonna, Vera Vague, Ellen Drew and the Ice-Capades skating stars. And, as an extra special programmer there is "You, John Jones," the United Nations short with James Cagney, five-year-old Margaret O'Brien and Ann Sothern.

Errol Flynn in 'Gentleman Jim' at Paramount, Fenway

By JOYCE DANA

Errol Flynn puts up his dukes and fights ferociously and swaggers magnificently through the title role of "Gentleman Jim," which is, with pardonable Hollywood license, based ever so loosely on the colorful life of James J. Corbett. The film opened yesterday at the Paramount and Fenway.

Leave it to the dashing Errol to be the Robin Hood of the prize ring of the 90's, when fights went 60 rounds to a finish and when John L. Sullivan, handlebar mustache and all, took the count and lost the world's championship in the 21st round while the crowd roared down in N'Orleans.

He's irrepressible—a bumptious braggart, starting out on his career with fine feathers and an immense capacity for punishment. The men in the house are going to have a grand time when the camera is focussed on Jim's early and late fights. They're the most realistic pugilistic encounters in films. You'll be ducking that Corbett left just as Pa Alan Hale, of the two longshoremen Corbett brothers, James Flavin and Pat Flaherty, do from the ringside.

The yarn starts with Errol as a handsome bank clerk, picking up his first fight for a win on a barge in San Francisco bay. The high spots in his boxing career—his fights with Joe Chynski and Sullivan—are shown in considerable detail, and if those close-ups of the Corbett fancy foot-work are really Mr. Flynn's, he's plenty fast on his feet.

Jack Carson blunders his way through for laughs, Bill Frawley is the boxer's hard-berled manager, and just so that the ladies can find a romance to keep them and their hero happy, Alexis Smith is the lady in Errol's life. She hates him so much that she puts up the $10,000 to guarantee the Sullivan fight. And you know what that leads to.

It may not be Corbett—but it's one hundred per cent Flynn down to the flicker of those long lashes. "The Affairs of Martha," with Marsha Hunt and Richard Carlson is the other Paramount-Fenway feature.

Warner to Confer With Rogers' Son

Jack L. Warner is going to Washington to confer with Congressman Will Rogers, Jr. The executive producer of Warner Bros. studio will discuss the life story of the late world-famed comedian Will Rogers, father of the Congressman, which is planned for production in the near future. Will Rogers, Jr., until recently a lieutenant in the U. S. Army, was recalled from duty by Secretary of War Stimson to assume his post in the 78th Congress upon his election from the 16th District of California.

DUKE ELLINGTON, who will make his Carnegie Hall debut tomorrow at a Russian War Relief concert, will make his only local appearance this season at Symphony Hall on Thursday when he and his band perform at a Soldiers and Sailors Fund benefit concert. His program will include such important new works as his "Black, Brown and Beige." The great American composer-band leader is being honored by the music world this week, which is National Duke Ellington Week.

New 'Ziegfeld Follies' Big, Beautiful and Enchanting

By PEGGY DOYLE

The new "Ziegfeld Follies," big, beautiful, bedazzling, opened last night at the Shubert Theater to a capacity house and one of the greatest advance sales since Broadway's Master Showman used to mesmerize Hub first-nighters.

By arrangement with Billie Burke Ziegfeld, the Messrs. Shubert in association with Alfred Bloomingdale and Lou Walters have taken over the awesome responsibility of carrying on the fabulous Ziegfeld tradition. They'll discover... probably did last night... that it takes doing.

Ilona Massey

Milton Berle, Ilona Massey and Arthur Treacher are the stars of the '43 "Follies," which abounds in beautiful girls, gorgeous costumes, enchanting dances and not a little corn. Visually, the current edition stacks up beautifully with the opulent "Follies" productions of the days when we were young and gay.

Hollywood's... and Hungary's... exquisite Miss Massey is one of the loveliest girls that ever glorified a "Follies" show. She is heady enough so that the lack of sock in her singing is mitigated by the sheer sight of her.

But if Miss Massey's vocalizing is missing in that note of authority, it must be reported that the burbling Berle's staccato wisecracking is crystal-clear if not always snow-white. Mrs. Berle's boy, Milton, was nearly as busy on stake last night as Ed Wynn at one of his own openings, and, for that matter, his footlights troupeau boasted almost as many freak getups. One of his most successful sketches was the "Loves-a-Foppin'" one according to Noel Coward.

The co-starring Arthur Treacher, the world's highest salaried butler, appears to excellent advantage throughout the evening, notably in that "Deliberate Delinquent" sketch which suggests a breakaway from his inevitable butting. The Treacher creature is a very droll fellow whose talents have yet to be adequately showcased in a Broadway production.

The dancing is slick, as isn't it to be expected with Robert Alton designing the routines in his un-routine way. The electric Nadine Gay and Tommy Wonder, permanent pets of this department; Betty Keane, so effortless and skilled; Ray Long, Jack McCauley, Jerry Bergen, Marilyn Hightower and Dan Rogers... all rate a great, big hand to coin a phrase. An arresting newcomer to the dance scene, Christine Ayres is, Variety reports, a former stripper named Charmaine. She wears her briefies well and she can dance, too, and never doubt it.

There are some pleasant tunes in the Jack Yellen-Ray Henderson score but, I'm afraid, nothing to remember the boys by. "Come Up and Have a Cup of Coffee," sung by Jaye Martin and Imogen Carpenter, ought to have had more sticktuitive power, backed up as it was by the most striking set and costumes in the entire eye-smiting show. It was a gleaming blend of coffee-colored satin, spangles and net.

Your play-reporter would rather remember a song or a personality than a set or costumes, vital as the latter are to a musical show's tout ensemble, but it is the "dressing" that takes first place in the new "Ziegfeld Follies." Miles White's brilliantly effective blending of colors and fabrics, draped on some of the handsomest chasises that ever titivated an audience, together with Watson Barratt's opulent settings, dominate the John Murray Anderson production.

YOU NEVER LOOKED LOVELIER, Joan Crawford, than in "Reunion in France," now showing on the State and Orpheum screens.

Bette Davis Hit On Uptown Bill

"Now, Voyager," Bette Davis' latest starring picture, is now showing on the Uptown screen. It has a Back Bay locale. Paul Henreid is Miss Davis' co-star. Claude Rains, Ilka Chase and Bonita Granville are featured. "Silver Queen," with Priscilla Lane and George Brent, is the co-feature.

Joan Crawford Lovelier Than Ever in Loew's Film

By PEGGY DOYLE

All of Joan Crawford's enduring boxoffice appeal will be needed to bolster Metro's tardy dramatization of Nazi-occupied France, "Reunion in France," which co-stars Philip Dorn and John Wayne with Miss Crawford currently on Loew's twin screens.

Recent news dispatches date this opulent screen production, which takes off just before the Nazi occupation of France. Miss Crawford, who never looked more beautiful, is cast as the pampered daughter of one of France's wealthiest, most socially prominent families.

She has the good fortune to be engaged to the fascinating Holland-born film star, Philip Dorn, who, for the script's purposes, is a highly regarded industrialist and French patriot. She is holidaying at the Lido or one of those once famous continental beauty spots when the invaders move in, occupy her house, apparently win over her fiancé.

Convinced that the man she loves is a Quisling, she breaks off the engagement, gets a job as salesgirl in a smart shop where she once was the most important customer.

A hunted RAF flyer, John

Wayne, whom she encounters by chance, needs and gets her assistance in his efforts to escape to London. She feigns a pro-Nazi sympathy with Dorn in order to win his aid for Wayne.

Just as she is about to flee the country with Wayne, she learns that Dorn's Nazi connections are entirely in the interest of France. So she brushes off the England-bound Wayne and returns to fight for her lost country with Dorn.

The film is based on an original story by Ladislav Bus-Fekete, with the adaptations being a collaboration by Jan Lustig, Marvin Borowsky and Marc Connelly. Another case of too many cooks, too many story angles and not enough solid characterization, leaving it up to the terrifically energetic Miss Crawford to mow 'em down at the box office.

"Eyes in the Night," with Edward Arnold and Ann Harding, is a murder mystery with espionage undertones. There is excellent acting, somewhat offset by the implausible plot.

DEMAND CORPS CHARGE PROBE

Calvin Coolidge, declined the post on the grounds that she is not young enough for the job. Maj. Virginia Irwin of Wellesley is acting commandant.

As the controversy still boiled, eight more officers of the corps resigned in a group. Also, Miss Alice D. Laughlin, Miss Hammond's chief of staff in the corps, resigned as a director of Women's Civilian Defense, Inc., an affiliated organization.

Miss Hammond, in making her charges, dismissed her removal by saying there had been many generals and colonels in her family and the loss of a "courageous colonel" was of no consequence.

"Unfortunately we had no petty politicians in the family and I am unfamiliar with that type of mind which would subordinate the welfare of the Commonwealth to the scheming of power politics," she said.

"Our politicians do not seem to realize that we are engaged in a war which will decide the fate of our nation for all time to come. In this life and death struggle there is no room for favoritism or nepotism."

"When the work of the corps was hamstringed by the inexcusable failure of responsible officials to provide essential equipment and broaden the work of the corps to include women's land army activities, I protested.

"Of course I should have kept my mouth shut which, I understand, is good politics. But I have never played that game, I don't know it.

"Incidentally much has been made of some equipment, personally owned, which has been removed. This will be promptly distributed to defense organizations that can best make use of it."

"If incompetence and politics combine to disrupt a smooth and efficient war agency, like the corps, the people of the commonwealth should know about it. They have too much at stake to condone it. I hope they will demand an accounting. For my own part I should welcome a full inquiry in the hope that its revelations will rehabilitate the corps as an independent and democratic agency."

Miss Hammond's statement was made at Hotel Vendome following a meeting with high officers of the corps. After the meeting, eight more officers announced their resignations out of loyalty to Miss Hammond or in dissatisfaction with conditions within the corps. They were Rebekah Hobbs, Arlene and Janet Morse, Celia Hubbard, Marguerite Tucker, Mary Bligh, Norma Williams and Alton Maloney.

Ice Cutter Indians Go Home—Too Cold

MINERS SPEED BACK TO WORK

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Jan. 22 (AP)—Production of anthracite coal reached 90 per cent of normal today with the end of a three-week wildcat strike that cost miners an estimated $2,000,000 in wages, withheld approximately 1,000,000 tons from the market and won strikers only the assurance that their wage demands would be considered later.

Only 2400 of the 23,000 United Mine Workers' members who once participated still were idle and the two local unions representing them announced meetings later today to take back-to-work votes.

Thousands streamed back to their jobs yesterday a few hours before a deadline set by President Roosevelt.

FIRE SWEEPS ST. JOHN

ALASKAN HEADACHE FOR OPA

Non-Rationed Folk Ship Food Back Here

SEATTLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—A new traffic in rationed commodities, in which they come back southward from non-rationed Alaska, was reported today at the Office of Price Administration.

Rationing never has been invoked in the territory. It would be a tough job for the prospectors and trappers to come in long distances through the wilderness to get monthly rations of sugar or coffee. Federal authorities decided it would be more practical to let them continue to stock up. Residents of Alaskan cities benefit accordingly.

Some of these, Mrs. Mildred Herman, territorial OPA director, complained in a letter to the Seattle office, now are taking such items as sugar and coffee with in the heavy bunker oil situation. Massachusetts' Institute of Technology was reported to have only enough fuel left for eight days; Lynn General Electric Co. officials said their oil stocks may be gone in a matter of hours.

Col. Thomas F. Sullivan, state conservator, pictured the entire outlook as "very dark" despite a new, large shipment of kerosene which he said was at hand.

"Sizeable supplies of kerosene are expected to be unloaded in Boston late today," said Col. Sullivan just before he went into conference with Gov. Saltonstall.

He also said that more kerosene was enroute and hoped that it would reach here to prevent suffering over the weekend. Home owners using No. 2 fuel oil are warned to conserve in every way possible as there soon may be a shortage in this grade fuel.

Wellesley College's winter vacation has been extended an additional two weeks as a means of fuel conservation.

At the same time it was announced that the last link in the 24-inch, 300,000 barrels a day pipe line from Texas to Illinois which will eventually help relieve the situation here, had been completed and oil was already being pumped in at the Texas end. The flow will start East about Feb. 10.

The new line will hold 4,000,000 barrels of oil—as much as the wells of the United States produce in a day. It will deliver 300,000 barrels a day at the terminal.

From there it will be carried in tank cars on a shorter haul to the Eastern refineries for a net gain of 120,000 barrels a day in the 17 stricken Eastern states, an amount equal to 85 tankers running at high speed from Gulf ports.

Kiss in Car Costs 'C' Book—It's Pleasure

MATAWAN, N. J., Jan. 22 (AP)—Police Chief Joseph C. Sloat watched the youthful driver stop his automobile, put his arms around a girl and kiss her. The chief decided if that wasn't pleasure driving he'd never seen any, so he lifted the "C" gasoline ration book held by the driver, Walter Cohen, 19, pending OPA action.

LAFF-A-DAY

Listen, World! Your Duty In War

By ELSIE ROBINSON

Copyright, 1943, King Features Synd., Inc.
World Rights Reserved

YOU'RE in a new year. It's going to be a bad year—don't tell yourself it isn't. It may lengthen into five or ten bad years.

This isn't pessimism. It's common sense. We've been sowing the seeds of these bad years for a million years by our selfishness and stupidity, our greed and arrogance. Now comes the harvest.

And there will be just one thing that can carry us through that harvest—OUR OWN BELIEF IN OURSELVES... OUR BELIEF IN OUR FINER, STRONGER, TALLER SELVES.

Faith—that is the basis of all victory. The Germans were victorious for a while because they believed in the rightful power of German blood.

The Japanese were victorious for a while because they believed in the mystic divine origin of their emperor.

But neither of these beliefs will carry us through. We see how childish they are. We know that no nation has a consecrated right to rule and no emperor is of divine origin. There's only one secret source of power in any nation.

AND THAT IS THE INDIVIDUAL FAITH WHICH ANIMATES EACH PERSON IN THAT NATION.

AMERICA is not great because of Plymouth Rock or the Liberty Bell or the Constitution. It is great because every real American believes in himself, his responsibility and his invincibility.

America is as great as the faith of each of its citizens, and it will win because of that faith.

BELIEVE IN YOURSELF!

Believe in yourself as you never did before. Believe in your deep, God-given honesty and decency and responsibility. Believe in your courage and self respect. Believe that no circumstance can conquer you... that you need no mystic legends to protect you... that you are sufficient for the job which faces you. Believe in the eternal spark that God breathed into you when He molded you out of the mud.

Chances are, you cannot join in the tremendous pageant of this war. The trumpets will not blow for you. You are too old or ill. You must stay at home and keep house or work in the shipyards. Inevitably you rebel. Your work becomes monotonous. You wish, angrily, that you could do something that really counts.

YOU CAN DO SOMETHING THAT REALLY COUNTS!

You can fill yourself with faith until you shine like that magic sword, Excalibur, which rose from the dark waters to King Arthur!

You can spread that faith. You can fill every timid soul with your own courage and confidence! You can be America's battle front!

BELIEVE in the power in yourself! No matter how poor you are or how obscure your position, you possess one treasure to which there is no limit—you possess faith. Never let go of that faith.

Never forget the power that lies in you. Grip that power. Stand straight and resolute because of it. Share it with everyone you meet. Shoot it into every chore you do.

Believe in yourself and your ability to conquer fear and circumstances, and no power on earth can conquer you. There is the answer to this war!

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN
International News Staff Writer
 Item: Nazi fliers bomb London school, killing 45 children and injuring scores.

Item: Nazi fliers buried with full military honors in England.

We don't get it.

We are being told to hate and the killing of little children is a guaranteed recipe for whipping us into a cold, bitter, hard hate.

But when Nazi killers are buried tenderly with the swastika on their coffins, planes circling overhead in salute, villages standing by soberly, we are confused.

Either the Nazis are murderers to be treated as such or they aren't.

The killer of little children is either a villain or a brave soldier. He can't be both.

The question before the house is are we really going to hate these people or send them flowers?

Thought for the day: Let's make up our minds.

MANDRAKE

MANDRAKE! YOU'RE NOT A KORDIE--?

DARLING, I'D HAVE GIVEN ANYTHING NOT TO PUT YOU THRU THAT TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

BUT I'VE GOT TO LEARN KORD'S SECRET--AND HOW TO FREE THOSE POOR KORDIES! THE ISLAND IS TEEMING WITH GUARDS. THIS PRETENSE IS THE ONLY WAY.

DARLING--TO THINK YOU'D MARRY KORD--TO HELP ME.

WHAT ELSE COULD I DO? I LOVE YOU.

NARDA--YOU'RE WONDERFUL--YOU'RE MARVELOUS.

HOLD ME REAL TIGHT--BEFORE THAT HORRIBLE MAN COMES BACK.

THERE GO DRIFTERS! AND SHAME, THE TWO ESCAPING ENEMY AGENTS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS! WE'LL LOWER ANOTHER BOAT AND GIVE CHASE.

FORGET IT! THEY'VE BORNE THE LIFEBOATS FULL OF MOLES AND SMASHED THE WHEELLOCKS CONTROLS! WE'RE STYMIED--

LIEUT. FLEET! THANK GOODNESS YOU'VE ARRIVED! TWO SPIES WHO ALMOST SUCCEEDED IN SHIPING THESE FACTORY WORKERS TO FORCED LABOR CAMPS HAVE ESCAPED IN A SMALL CABIN LAUNCH--HEADED SOUTH.

TEN WE'RE WASTING TIME! COME ABOARD HERE, TIM AND SPUD--SNAP IT UP.

LOOK--THERE IT IS! WE'RE PULLING UP FAST--

SAY--THAT LAUNCH ISN'T MOVING! IT'S MOTIONLESS--DRIFTING WITH THE TIDE!

KILL THAT MOTOR! WE'VE GOT TO APPROACH QUIETLY--IF THIS IS SOME KIND OF TRAP WE'LL BE READY FOR IT!

SECRET AGENT

YOU MEAN, NIKOL, YOU'RE NOT GOING TO LET HIM COME INTO YOUR APARTMENT FOR A GOOD NIGHT SNACK?

I'M TOO TIRED TO ARGUE, DRISCO--EVEN WITH THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS JEWEL THIEF--GOOD NIGHT!

I DON'T WANT ANY VISITORS OR PHONE CALLS TONIGHT!

VERY WELL, MA'AM!

Y--YOU? HOW DID YOU GET HERE?

A GOOD ENTRANCE IS A REQUIREMENT FOR A JEWEL THIEF, NIKOL!

BOOGIE WOOGIE

GET A LOAD OF THAT, GLORIA! LOVE COMES TO BOOGIE WOOGIE!

THERE'S THE ANSWER TO OUR PROBLEM, JIM!

YOU BETCHA VICTOR DO!!

DID HE REALLY SAY THAT?

YOU MAY BE INTERESTED TO LEARN THAT VICTOR AND MOOLA HAVE JUST REACHED AN AGREEMENT! VICTOR WILL BE THE NEW CHIEF AND MOOLA HIS LAWFUL, WEDDED MATE!

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME

HERE'S ANOTHER PIECE ABOUT SIS IN THIS MOVIE MAGAZINE--HO-HO! LISTEN: DOLLY DUFFLE IS NEVER HAPPIER THAN WHEN SHE'S UP TO HER NECK IN POTS AND PANS, TRYING OUT A NEW RECIPE IN HER HOLLYWOOD BUNGALOW KITCHEN--

IF SHE BOILED WATER, SHE'D SCORCH IT ONLY TIME SHE EVER USED THE STOVE WAS TO DRY HER STOCKINGS!

LOOK AT THAT PICTURE REAL CLOSE, IT MUST BE HER STAND-IN WITH ALL THEM DIRTY DISHES.

WHEN WE HAD A VISIT OUT THERE LAST SPRING SHE TOOK US TO A HAMBURGER STAND EVERY MEAL.

GETTING A LAUGH OUT OF THE WRITE UP ABOUT SIS IN THE MOVIE MAGAZINE--

Silver Skates Derby to Set New High

Director Ben Levias will establish a new high for Silver Skates Derby offerings at the Garden on Sunday afternoon. During a war period when many promoters are having difficulty getting talent Ben has secured the greatest list of stars ever to appear on a Silver Skates program.

Adele Inge, brilliant fancy skater now showing at the New Yorker;

Ted Meza, king of the skating comedians;

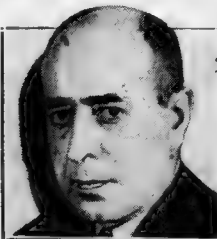

Edi Scholdan, winner of skating titles in Austria and in England and now skating instructor at the Commonwealth Skating Club;

Janie Weiss, 13-year-old Walpole miss, and one of the stars of the Commonwealth Skating Club;

Sandy Lee Weille, nine-year-old Brookline fancy skater; Lou Hall, secretary of the New England Skating Ass'n, and his skating family;

The LeBel family, barrel jumpers from Meriden, Ct.;

And 400 amateur skaters from all parts of New England!

BEN LEVIAS

Silver Skates Derby Has Featured Many Stars

Down through the years the Silver Skates Derby has featured stars who have gone on to gain national recognition. The list includes Vera Hrubá, Erna Anderson, Hazel Franklin, Arianne, Megan Taylor, Red McCarthy, Phil Taylor, Polly Blodgett, Gretchen Merrill, Joan Tozzer, Dorothy Glazier, Grace and Jimmy Madden and many others.

Carl Rohde's Orchestra, which has played for Sonja Henie and the Iccapades, will furnish the music at the Silver Skates Derby. This makes it certain that Miss Inge, Meza, Scholdan, Miss Weiss, Miss Weille, Hall and the LeBel family will be able to show at their best. Music under the proper direction does much to make a success of ice carnivals.

Billy Mullen, supervisor of physical education under Park Commr. William P. Long, will assist Levias in handling the many details in connection with the big show.

Bob Murphy and Harry Allen of the Garden forces will have the setup and ice for the carnival in perfect order.

Police Commr. Joe Timilty will have a special detail of police at the Garden under the direction of Sgt. George Hunter. The latter will also give a skating exhibition. It is expected that Commr. Timilty, always interested in athletic events, will attend the carnival.

Supt. Manary of the Boston City Hospital will have a special detail of doctors and nurses at the Garden as he has done in past years.

Ice Carnivals Have Increased in Popularity

Maj. Walter Brown, who had much to do with the starting of the Silver Skates Derby, is expected to attend the affair Sunday afternoon. Maj. Brown was also largely responsible for getting the Iccapades and the Ice Follies started on the road to success.

Director Levias tells me the carnival will start promptly at 1:30 p. m. It will then be kept moving at top speed. Ben is a master at staging big ice carnivals and has made a success of every affair he has ever directed.

Levias has a fondness for amateur sports promotion, and has done more than most persons to help youngsters eager to participate in athletics.

The Silver Skates Derby has always been offered at popular prices. The ticket scale for Sunday afternoon's show is 30 cents for children 13 years of age and younger, 44 cents for adults and 55 cents for reserved seats.

It is the show of shows! Don't miss it.

ALLEN QUESTIONS FINANCIAL DEALINGS OF NCA

LAWRENCE, Kan., Jan. 22 (AP)—After more than a quarter century of profound, and frequently explosive, research, Dr. F. C. (Phog) Allen, Kansas cage patriarch, concludes there is just one thing in basketball freer than a free throw—that's playing under the auspices of the National Collegiate Athletic Ass'n.

This weighty opinion was disclosed today as the doctor commented on the decision of the N. C. A. A. to transfer the national court playoffs from Kansas City to Madison Square Garden in New York.

The Kansas team currently is the hottest thing in the 'Big Six' conference on the basis of a 12-game winning streak.

OWE KANSAS MONEY

"I see by the papers where the N.C.A.A. big wigs figure the move will draw more customers, and the competing teams will get more money. All I can say to such benevolence, is what money?"

"Why, they still owe us money from last year's western playoffs at Kansas City when we virtually packed the hall for games with Rice and Colorado. All we ever got was $330 expense money, which, incidentally, still left us $75 in the hole."

"To my knowledge, they have never reported the profits. You see, under the present setup the N.C.A.A. gets 45 per cent of the net proceeds to feather their nest, and the other 45 per cent goes to all the competing teams and the coaches' association—an 18-way split for each game of the playoffs and finals.

"I don't know how much money they made in 1942, but it was enough for a sizable dividend. We want our money, even if it was only $5.

Allen cited as financial contrasts a four-game Eastern trip which netted the Jayhawks $2500 over the Christmas holidays, and pointed to the big six guarantee of $400 for a conference game.

DODDS, M'HENLEY MAKE INDOOR DEBUT IN 'Y' MEET

By HERB FINNEGAN

Gilbert Dodds, BAA's one-man track team, will make his first start of the 1943 indoor track season tomorrow night when he runs the two-mile handicap race in the 27th annual meet conducted by and at the Boston YMCA.

It should be a romp for the Flying Parson unless his opponents are handicapped up to a mile because he's capable of a world record breaking effort on a fast track and should be around 9:20 on the rubber-covered "Y" saucer.

Roy Phillips of Tufts, the boy who figured to make Dodds extend himself, is going to his Bridgeport, Ct., home to confer with his draft board over the week-end and will not compete. Phillips turned in an 9:18 effort at the Penn Relays past spring.

WEST INDIAN RUNNER

Dodds, in fact, should be the No. 1 man of the impending indoor season. The national mile and metric mile champion is running as well as he ever did last winter, according to Coach Jack Ryder. Dodds won the Sugar Bowl mile in New Orleans in 4:13 on Dec. 31 and wasn't even pressed.

Another Ryder protege who will be watched with interest tomorrow is Bob McHenry, BC freshman from the West Indies. McHenry is a potential 100 and 220-yard outdoor champion but whether he'll feel at home on the small "Y" track is a matter of conjecture. He did 9.8 for the 100 and 30.3 for the 300 on the cinders last fall and will run the 300 as well as the dash in the "Y" meet. But his long gait is not suited to the "Y" turns.

Other strong B. C. entries are Tommy Greehan, dash; Frank Harris, 600; Freshman Sheehan, 1000 (but there is a mixup over his entry and he may not start).

CARROLL LEADS HUSKIES

Tufts has several headliners in Ted Sparrow, hurdles; Charlie Kirkiles, 300; Harry Drake, 600; Ed Smith, 1000, and Lawrence King, two-mile.

Tech has a couple of good boys in Bob Miller and Ken Joseph. Miller, mile winner at Malden last week, will start in the 1000. Joseph is captain-elect of the cross-country team.

Northeast has a full team spear-headed by Bob Carroll, who defeated Dodds in the "Y" 1000 last year, but Harvard has entered only Pete Garland in the shotput.

Competitors of note from outside college ranks are: Ralph King, of Rindge, state scholastic sprint champion; Tony Luciano, national scholastic 880-yard champion from Seton Hall; Ted Janiak, Coast Guard; Tom McKenna, St. John's Prep; Francis Corcoran, ex-N. U., now unattached . . . Bowdoin has sent down a batch of entries . . . Bob Meny of Tech has exams tomorrow and may not appear for the sprint.

FATTA FACES SAL BARTOLO

What shaped up earlier as a disappointment to local fight fans now takes on the appearance of a fistie natural in the substitution of Carmine Fatta, New York, for Chalky Wright, ex-champion, as Sal Bartolo's opponent in the 10-round feature bout at the Arena tonight.

Fatta comes here highly recommended by fight fans of the Holyoke Arena who have seen him in action this past year. In his most

Canadiens Saved by Amateurs

By BILL GRIMES

Six weeks ago the fate of Montreal was hinged on the outcome of a Ranger-Canadien game in New York. The club was near bowing out of the National Hockey League. The Quebec metropolis was the birthplace of major league hockey, so the above statement will be denied there by the powers that be. But it's the gospel truth.

When they came here to play the Bruins in the first American Red Cross game on Dec. 12, Les Canadiens were ready to quit. They had won one game in a month and had dropped to the bottom of the league.

"Unless we beat the Rangers tomorrow night in New York," we were told by one who was in a position to know, "we will fold."

AMATEURS AGREE

Somebody must have tipped off the Frenchmen before the game that it was win or the bread line for they beat the Blue Shirts.

Then Tommy Gorman, Canadiens chief, went to Frank Calder, N. H. L. boss, with his "lease-land plan" which would allow amateurs to play one game for Les Canadiens without losing their "simon pure" status. Calder went into a huddle with the Canadian Amateur Hockey Ass'n and Gorman's "brain child" was adopted and Les Canadiens were saved. But the Royals and Canadiens of the Q. S. H. L. were expendable.

For many years the Royals and Canadiens have entertained the followers of amateur hockey in Montreal. The Royals were sponsored and financed by the Montreal Forum as a farm club for the Maroons. Les Canadiens backed the French amateur club.

EXPENDABLE

Since the lease-land plan was adopted, Les Canadiens have been raiding the ranks of the Royals and the amateur French club. They have taken up Bobby Lee, Johnny Mahaffy, Glen Harmon, Alex Smart, "Smiley" Meronek and filled in once with Irving McGibbin, who was playing with a munitions club.

Now it has reached the stage where Royals and Canadiens must merge to be any kind of a drawing card at the Forum. Despite the stiff opposition from the Q. S. H. L. clubs whose rosters are cluttered with ex-N. H. L. players, Royals and Canadiens were holding their own, until they became expendable for Montreal's lone N. H. L. representative.

In order to retain its N. H. L. club, Montreal has sacrificed a card which has always paid dividends, the rivalry between the English Royals and the French Canadiens.

SONS OF FAMOUS FLIER IN DERBY 45

JUST LIKE DAD—Danny, 12, and Billy, 8, sons of the famous flier Danny Duggan who ferried bombers to England until he lost his life in a crash off the coast of Scotland, are following in their dad's footsteps. Danny enjoyed nothing better than flying and skating. The boys are entered in the American-Record Silver Skates Derby at the Garden next Sunday and they are anxiously awaiting the day they'll be able to fly a plane.

3 Seniors Lose Chance To Set Tufts' Records

Inability of the Holy Cross track team to reach Tufts for its dual meet last Saturday was a stroke of misfortune for three Jumbo athletes—pole vaulter Ed Hoffer, shot putter Bruce Watkins and broad jumper Warren Price. At Tufts, as at every campus college, shields are draped on the walls of the field house with the college track and field records inscribed thereon. These boys looked like a cinch to make it. The pole vault record at Tufts is 11.6; Hoffer has been clearing 13 feet all winter. The shot put mark at Tufts is 45.7; Watkins has been exceeding 46 feet all winter. The broad jump record at Tufts is 23.3; Price has been bettering 22 feet all winter.

Tufts had two meets with Harvard this winter, but both were informal. Records made in informal meets are not etched on Tufts walls. Records made in official dual meets are, however, and thus these three athletes were looking forward to the H. C. dual meet with great anxiety. It was their last chance, you see, because they were graduated today under the accelerated academic programs now in vogue in the colleges. Thus Saturday's snow deprived all three of a chance at Tufts immortality.

There were two other top-notch athletes in Tufts mid-year graduating class today. They are Don Reid, who was No. 1 man on the one-mile relay last year, and young Walter Long, who displaced Reid as No. 1 man in recent time trials. Long, who just started to come this winter, hadn't even made his letter.

Another fine athlete who bade adieu to college ranks this morning was Billy Ambrose of B. C., who joined the Marines at 8 a. m. B. C. has three fine quarter-milers in Bob McHenry, Jim Kelleher and Frank Harris. With Ambrose, who had marks of 50.3 for the 440 and 1:56 for the 880 as a schoolboy last year, Ryder had dreams of leading the collegiate one-mile relay parade this winter. But Ambrose's absence changes all that.

Campbell's Induction Leaves Sox With Only 4 Fielders

Induction of Paul Campbell into the Army leaves the Red Sox with only four outfielders on its roster, three of them men who never have played a game of major league baseball.

The lone veteran is Pete Fox, considered Lou Finney's right field substitute last season. According to the record books Pete will be 34 on March 8.

Outfielders purchased by the Sox over the winter are Johnny Lazor from Louisville, Tommy McBride from Little Rock and Ford Garrison from Fort Worth.

It is doubtful if the Sox can pick up any other outfield strength so it is possible that third baseman Jim Tabor will be shifted to the outfield, where he was going last spring until Ted Williams was re-classified from 1-A to 3-A. In that event Joe Cronin might step in at third base or keep himself for possible outfield duty and play the smooth-fielding Skeeter Newcomb at the hot corner.

Campbell is the second Sox outfielder to enter the service in the past week. The other was Andy Gilbert, who played with Lazor in the Louisville outfield last season.

Previously Sox outfielders Ted Williams and Dom DiMaggio enlisted and Lou Finney was "frozen" to his 700-acre farm at Buffalo, Ala., by his draft board.

DAD WAS FAMOUS FLIER

Just before the entries closed, a letter came from Winthrop containing entries from Danny Duggan, 12, and Billy Duggan, eight. That in itself was not unusual for brother combinations are often found in the Derby. But somebody noticing the names remarked: "I wonder whether they are the late Capt. Danny Duggan's youngsters?"

This called for a little investigation and a checkup revealed that Danny and Billy are sons of the Danny, one of the most colorful and capable pilots Boston ever had.

Danny was a born flier and could take any crate up regardless of its condition. He flew in all kinds of weather and under any circumstances. Always he brought his plane safely in.

BOYS WANT TO BE PILOTS

Long before the United States entered the war, Danny saw what was ahead. He left this country and signed up to ferry bombers to England. He made eight trips over without a mishap, but then fate stepped in. Returning from England after the eighth jaunt he started home with several other pilots in a transport plane as one of the passengers. Just off the coast of Scotland the plane crashed and all were killed, including Danny.

But Danny still lives on in his two youngsters. Both are following in his footsteps. Little Danny and Billy talk about nothing but flying and skating, two things that dad most enjoyed.

Both want to be pilots some day, and it's 100 to 1 shot they will be. But right now their big interest is the Silver Skates Derby and they are out to win.

ARLINGTON FAVORED TO RETAIN LOOP ROOF

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, FRIDAY, JAN. 22, 1943

By MIKE GILLOOLY

Arlington High School's hockey team, playing its first game under its new coach, Ray Burke, looms as a cinch to beat off Belmont High to maintain its slim leadership in the Greater Boston League tomorrow afternoon at the Garden as all three ice loops continue their battles in the twin skating palaces.

Ski Crowds Keeping Up

By "TAP" GOODENOUGH

Most amazing, indeed, is the way in which ski enthusiasts continue to visit New England schuss centers for winter vacations. Despite travel restrictions and other difficulties, hundreds have been seeking healthy recreation on the powdered slopes and trails. Weekend crowds, naturally, are below normal, but all hostilities are well booked during mid-week periods.

From our own observations, we have noted that a great many of those trying the hickories this season are servicemen on leave, war workers or men soon to head the call to the colors.

Good conditions have prevailed in the Berkshires of Massachusetts, and many have been the guests at the G-Bar-S Ranch in Great Barrington and Jug End Barn, South Egremont. To save gasoline, sleighs are used to meet the trains... Jumping to Maine, Mrs. Emma Kanaly reports that business has held up very well at her inviting abode in Bridgton, Christmas Tree Inn.

The Manchester, Vt., area, embracing Snow Valley and new Big Bromley, now offers Otto Lang, head of the famous Sun Valley Ski School, Idaho, and four of his associate instructors, all masters in the art of the Arlberg technique. Nat Niles has also joined the staff... John Perry, veteran patrolman, is directing the regional patrol... Al Zoesch, owner of the Kandahar Ski Lodge on Bromley Mountain, will soon join the Mountain Troops at Camp Hale, Colorado, but the Lodge will remain open.

A total of 13,400 rides have been taken on the Alpine lift at Pico Peak, Vt., thus far this winter, according to Janet Mead.

Olympics' Foe Best Scorers

The Olympics face the high scoring team of the league when they square off with the New York Rovers at the Garden on Saturday and Sunday evenings.

The Gotham combine has connected for 130 goals in 29 games; an average of better than four goals per contest. Nearest rival in the scoring column is the Coast Guard with 121 tallies in 28 games.

Boston, which now rates third place in the loop because of a forfeited two-point game from the Sands Point Tigers, rates third in the scoring list with 101 goals in 26 tilts.

In the list of the top ten scorers, Rovers boast of five places. Leading the parade is Harry Hilliard with 25 goals and 20 assists. In second place is Dave Livingstone with 24 goals and 20 assists.

The G. B. I. will hold its usual session at 1 p. m. above the North Station while the Bay State circuit will swing into action at the Arena in the afternoon, and the Eastern Mass. group will continue their nightly prowls on that same St. Botolph st. floor.

In spite of the change in mid-stream, there is little doubt that the clever Arlington group, paced by Jim Malone, Mel Massucco and Ralph Cooley, will trump the last place Belmont outfit.

FIRST DIVISION AT STAKE

Ray McGinnis, first string center for Coach Polly Harris' team, holds the offensive hopes of Belmont but he'll hardly be able to cope with the scoring Arlington leaders.

The opening game on the program may provide the most exciting session as Stoneham and Rindge Tech, technically tied for fourth place in the standings, skate it out for first division berth and the championship play.

Rindge, with its clever first line of Leo Desrosiers, Bob Verrier and Henry Moulton, will be favored over the more aggressive Bill Doherty and his Stoneham mates.

Melrose and Medford, deadlocked for third place, should easily top their rivals. Ed Cahoon and the defending champs will square off against Cambridge Latin in the opener of the second half while the Mustangs, led by the Garrity brothers, Jack and Will, and Fred Trebino should settle the Newton's fate.

CO-LEADERS FAVORED

In the Bay State meeting at the Arena, Walpole High, halted in its rapid race to the championship by Framingham last week, will try to swing back into pace against Norwood. Holding the leadership of the loop by a slim half game. Ed Songin and Len Ceglarski will try to pile up their lead in the tussle for individual honors, running neck and neck at present.

Other contests on the afternoon program will find Boston College High tangling with Needham; Wellesley trading tricks with Watertown and Framingham attempting to keep pace with the leader in a stiff tilt with Waltham. Hudson and Wakefield, co-leaders of the Eastern loop, should continue to set the pace after stubborn contests. Hudson will open the night program at the Arena against Lexington while the defending champions will square off with Natick in the second game. Other matches will pit Malden vs. Somerville and Brookline vs. Dedham.

Cooney, Waner Pleased With Brooklyn Hookup

SARASOTA, Fla., Jan. 22 (AP)—The veteran Paul Waner looks for the coming major league baseball season to be one of the most interesting in the game's history, with even the Philadelphia Phils "liable to win the pennant" in the National.

Dodgers Seek Teen Age Lads

NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—A system for mass production of ball players will be undertaken by the Brooklyn Dodgers this year in spite of the war—and George Sisler, one of baseball's great all-time first basemen, is to be a kingpin in the setup.

Branch Rickey, president of the Dodgers, explained the plan yesterday at a press conference and said that Sisler, who is commissioner of the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress, would become a Brooklyn scout to lead the search for talent among the sand-lotters.

The plan calls for conducting camps and baseball schools throughout the country in a manner similar to the program Rickey installed with great success for the St. Louis Cardinals.

"It is absolutely opposed to the process of reducing scouting staffs which most clubs are doing," he elaborated, "although it is understandable why clubs which have confined their scouting to the minor leagues would need fewer scouts now. There will be fewer minor leagues."

"We are going into what might be termed the field of free agency scouting. We hope to find some good prospects among the 16 and 17-year-olds."

"We are, in effect, betting that the war is over in two years. If it is, this is a corking good program. If the war lasts three years, then maybe we are throwing away a year of scouting."

"But I believe in mass production of ball players. Why in the past I looked at as many as 3500 young players in one year."

TONTIHOOT'S SCHEDULE
(No game scheduled in either league.)

Because of the draft, plus the countless other uncertainties of a baseball season, "You don't know what's going to happen," the 40-year-old veteran outfielder said today.

Waner, signed up along with Johnny Cooney by the Brooklyn Dodgers only 48 hours after their release by the Boston Braves, said that on paper the St. Louis Cardinals appeared to have a good chance to repeat with their younger club but the drafting of two or three key players could change the entire picture for them or any other club.

"In general the most valuable men are the ones most likely to be called," he said.

As for the Dodgers, Waner said they should have a good chance at the pennant despite the loss of most of their outfield and some good pitchers, and Cooney seconded the motion. Waner also said he hoped to add "considerable" hits to his lifetime total which passed the 3000-mark last season.

Both said they had been keeping in excellent physical condition and planned to do some spring training of their own here before going north to join their club. They likewise were confident that they had at least one or two more seasons of major league playing left and could give good accounts of themselves with the Dodgers.

"I thought I'd be better off with Brooklyn," said the 41-year-old Cooney. "I always played well there and I have a lot of friends there."

"I think I'll try to hold on at least until Pete Reiser comes back and then I may call it quits," he said.

$20,300 Lures Bowling Stars

CHICAGO, Jan. 22 (AP)—The nation's crack bowlers—with league averages of 185 and better—start shooting tomorrow in the 29th annual Peterson Individual Classic, the game's richest tournament.

With a record entry of 832, cash awards will total $20,800, and the top klegler after eight games will pocket $4000. Two squads of 32 men, bowling eight games across 16 alleys, will start the tournament with the remaining 24 squads competing during the nine-day period ending Jan. 31.

A diamond studded medal goes with the $4000 cash award, while runner-up will get $2000 and third high bowler $1000. There are 37 other individual awards, ranging down to $120 for the last six men to finish in the cash bracket, and 120 squad prizes, including $100 for the high scorer on each squad. The cash outlay will total $20,300.

Proceeds from the meet, which has attracted 54 more bowlers than last year's, will be turned over to the Chicago service men's bowling center, scene of the recent all-star tournament.

13 Above at 13 Below—Maybe being on the thirteenth floor while the mercury rested at 13 degrees below zero had something to do with this accident . . . but Mike Miernicki, being a window washer, isn't superstitious. Anyway, Mike was polishing panes of Chicago's Equitable Life Insurance building when an avalanche of snow hit him . . . not too hard, though, to cause any real trouble.
